

STERLING ATTACKED IN HOUSE

PRESIDENT OF BAYLOR DIED THURSDAY

DRUNKEN DRIVER LAW PASSED BY BOTH HOUSES

DR. S. P. BROOKS, PRESIDENT BAYLOR UNIVERSITY, DEAD

WELL KNOWN TEXAS EDUCATOR AND LEADING BAPTIST DIED THURSDAY

WACO, May 14.—(P)—Dr. Samuel Palmer Brooks, 67, president of Baylor University here more than 28 years, died early today at the Central Texas Baptist Sanitarium. He had been ill with cancer since late last year and had been a patient at the sanitarium about two weeks.

Dr. Brooks had known for some days that death was certain. His physicians said only the unusual strength of his heart, which kept beating steadily for days after he had despaired of his life, postponed the end. With him when he died were Mrs. Brooks, two children, former Governor Pat M. Neff and several other friends. His children are Sims P. Brooks, Waco attorney, and Miss Aurelia Brooks, graduate student at Columbia University.

Former Governor Neff came here early in the week to spend his friend's last hour with him. Their acquaintance had covered 40 years. At Dr. Brooks' request Neff kept vigil at the hospital to hold his old friend's hand when the end came.

The university president's last labor for Baylor was to sign diplomas to be presented to members of this year's graduation class. He had signed more than half of them when he became so weak that his doctors forbade him to continue.

Dr. Brooks, born in Milledgeville, Ga., became president of Baylor in 1902. His parents had moved to Texas when he was five.

Mrs. Hilda Schroeder, 45-year-old mother of two children and former president of the Hilda Schroeder Bond and Mortgage Company of Chicago, who was sentenced to serve an indeterminate term of from one to ten years in the new women's prison at Joliet, Ill. She was found guilty of embezzling $4,600 from John Ouska, a real estate man.

SENATORS REFUSE ATTORNEY GENERAL RIGHT TO DIRECT

PREVENTS CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER SITTING IN SESSION COMMISSIONERS COURT

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—The senate and house today had legislated against the drunken driver.

The Senate passed a bill by Representative Burns of Brady providing for the disqualification of drivers found guilty of operating automobiles while intoxicated.

Provisions of the bill stated a jury finding a person guilty of such an offense would be required to specify the length of time the defendant would be prohibited from driving an automobile. Disqualification for as long as two years would be possible.

A person violating such a prohibiting order would be guilty of

ROAD BOND ISSUE FAILS TO SECURE PASSING MAJORITY

AMENDMENT IS PASSED TO EXEMPT HOMESTEADS
FROM TAXATION

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—Although it gained enough momentum to carry it to within five ballots of the necessary two-thirds majority for submission, the $22,000,000 highway bond issue resolution failed yesterday to obtain enough votes to pass the house. The vote was 95 to 46.

Proponents said they believed the proposed amendment could be taken up again by the house next Wednesday, although a point of order prevented a reconsideration of the vote for the purpose of keeping the resolution.

Both houses agreed to submit to the people a proposed constitutional amendment to exempt $3,000 of the taxable value of homesteads from state and local taxes. The senate adopted an amendment increasing the amount of exemptions to $3,000.

Nine Questioned Connection With Alleged Plots

MEXICO CITY, May 14.—(P)—Nine persons, including former General Mario S. Martinez, accused of plotting to overthrow the government and to assassinate President Ortiz Rubio, were questioned by police today and turned over to the attorney general for investigation.

After inquiring into Senator Martinez' past, police said he had been implicated in several previous conspiracies and was believed to be irresponsible for his acts. Authorities are continuing to run down the threads of the purported plot.

Finance Minister Luis Cabrera, alleged leader of the conspiracy, was deported to Guatemala last Saturday.

Believed Silver Drop Cause
NUEVO LAREDO, Mexico, May 14.—(P)—A tumble in the price of Mexican silver pesos from 39.50 to 36.25 since last Friday was regarded here by political observers as a result of the ousting of Luis Cabrera from Mexico and the purported discovery of a revolutionary plot.

Cabrera, secretary of the treasury under the late President Venustiano Carranza and who still is highly influential in Mexican politics, was arrested Saturday and banished from the republic.

Mexico City authorities who made the arrest declared that the revolutionary plot was deep-rooted and involved a large group of influential Mexicans in Mexico City and several states.

SOUTH SEAS FOLLIES BEAUTY

Florence Ziegfeld, well known for his "glorified" girls, has gone 'way to the South Seas to get his latest example of the feminine face and figure divine. Reri, shown on left, in her native dress, is contrasted sharply on the right, where the beautiful Polynesian enacts the role of an American miss to perfection. Reri was discovered on the Isle of Bora Bora by a movie producer seeking a star for his picture, "Tabu." The new addition to the Follies knows no English, but speaks French.

FOURTH MAN REPORTED HAVE MADE STATEMENT CONNECTION WITH CORSICANA KIDNAPPING

Doyle Nash, the fourth man charged with kidnapping and alleged conspiracy to commit a felony in indictments returned by the Navarro county grand jury Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock, in connection with the kidnapping of Robert Cerf, last December, made a statement to county and city officers late Wednesday afternoon, Cleo G. Miller, county attorney, announced Thursday.

Doyle Nash, Jimmie Nash, Currie W. Caldwell and Charles Hassell, are all now in custody in the Navarro county jail, having been returned here late Wednesday from adjoining county jails with the exception of Jimmie Nash who was not taken away.

One man who has not been apprehended was also named in the indictments returned late yesterday by the Navarro county investigators.

Doyle Nash was held in the Hill county jail in Hillsboro; Charles Hassell was in the Limestone county jail at Groesbeck; and Currie Caldwell was in the Ellis county jail in Waxahatchie.

Investigators were busy Thursday gathering up loose ends of evidence and making plans for the trials of the cases. Cleo G. Miller, county attorney, intimated Thursday morning that it was probable the cases would be set down for trial in the thirteenth judicial district court within the next few days.

Appeared Before Grand Jury
I. N. Cerf, Robert Cerf, Will S. Knight, chief of police, and Rufus Pevehouse, sheriff, appeared before the Navarro county grand jury Wednesday afternoon in the Cerf case.

Robert Cerf was kidnapped on Dec. 30, 1930, and carried to Dallas where he was kept until the following night and was released after the payment of $15,000 ransom by the elder Cerf in Dallas county as demanded in a note left on the porch of the Cerf home, found after a telephone call announced a note would be found. The delivery of the money was made near the Trinity river bridge just south of Dallas by N. Suttle Roberts, vice-president of the State National Bank here, of which the elder Cerf is president, and close friend of Mr. Cerf.

A second note, Jan. 2, 1931, demanding $8,000 more money, caused the reporting of the incidents.

GREAT FLEET OF AMERICAN ARMY AIRCRAFT CONVERGING ON DAYTON, OHIO, THURSDAY

DAYTON, O., May 14.—(P)—The first of the planes to participate in the greatest concentration of army aircraft in the country's history were due here today and by tomorrow the air will be thick with battle fleets.

Ninety-eight Leave Ft. Sill
FORT SILL, Okla., May 14.—(P)—Ninety-eight ships of the army aerial forces took off here early today bound for Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., en route to Dayton, O., where they are to take part in the annual war maneuvers.

Only one of the 99 ships that left San Antonio, Texas, in this group yesterday morning was left behind. Motor trouble kept it on the ground at Dallas.

Sixty-Five Leave Tulsa
TULSA, Okla., May 14.—(P)—Sixty-five army airplanes proceeded to Dayton, O., for a mobilization of the army's air forces, took off from the Tulsa municipal airport between 9:45 and 10:30 a. m.

By assembling a total of 670 planes here, army officers hope to show that Dayton is the logistical center for a defense of the eastern and middlewestern industrial sections, and that the air corps can be mobilized here within 24 hours.

HELD CONNECTION ALLEGED FORGERY STATE CERTIFICATES

DISTRICT CLERK OF UPSHUR COUNTY HELD IN TRAVIS COUNTY JAIL THURSDAY

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—Five complaints charging forgery and passing a forged instrument were filed in justice court here today against Claude Ray, Upshur county district clerk.

Ray was arrested in connection with the investigation by state officers of alleged forgeries of witness fee certificates.

Two men had committed suicide and a third had been indicted on nine counts of forgery since the investigation started. Officials estimated the losses to the state might reach a half million dollars.

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—Ranger Robert G. Goss and George H. Sheppard, state controller, turned to Austin today with Claude Ray, Upshur county district clerk, alleged to have forged witness fee certificates.

This was the third case of alleged forgery uncovered by state investigators. Two men had committed suicide and a third had been indicted here on nine counts in connection with the other two cases.

Bruce Bryant, first assistant attorney general, was preparing to file charges against Ray. Sheppard discovered the alleged forgeries.

BRIAND RESIGNS FROM CABINET AS DOUMER IS ELECTED

RESIGNATION IS REFUSED AND STATESMAN URGED TO GO GENEVA

PARIS, May 14.—(P)—Aristide Briand, in yesterday's presidential election, today offered his resignation as foreign minister, a post he has held for seven years, but Premier Laval and his other colleagues in the cabinet persuaded him to remain in that important office at least until his immediate tasks at Geneva are completed.

The cabinet decided he should go to Geneva tomorrow for the meeting of the committee on European Federation, as he had planned to do before the election.

When Briand left the Quai d'Orsay where the cabinet met, he confirmed the report of his resignation, adding "they refused to accept it," but indicating that the resignation still stands.

Briand in defeat was more in the French eye than Paul Doumer, successful candidate for president. Briand's associates thought his resignation would be refused.

Toast to Death Drunk by Girl Brings Wedding

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 14.—(P)—The toast of poison 16-year-old Marguerite Hardy drank to love and death last Monday had made her a bride today but physicians said she could not live longer than tomorrow.

The girl said she swallowed the poison because she thought her 18-year-old sweetheart, Willie R. Crittenden, had telephoned another girl. Yesterday Crittenden obtained a marriage license and the wedding took place in the hospital here. Miss Hardy being barely able to whisper the vows.

Crittenden said he and the girl had planned to be married three weeks hence.

Police Department Presented Badge To New Commissioner

R. D. FLEMING
Corsicana Police and Fire Commissioner.

City Commissioner R. D. Fleming, director of affairs for police and fire departments, now feels that he is really a qualified member of the law enforcement bodies of Corsicana.

Last Friday, the new commissioner, who has been in his new post less than a month, was presented with an attractive gold badge by members of the police department, headed by Chief of Police Will S. Knight. The badge is inscribed "Police Commissioner, Corsicana, Texas" and the commissioner is proudly displaying his credentials.

Commissioner Fleming is also enjoying an unusual distinction at the present time, for in addition to being police and fire commissioner, he is in charge of the street and sanitary departments. He is also mayor pro tem.

Prior to the inauguration of the new administration headed by Mayor J. W. Edens, the commissioner was in charge of the police and fire departments. He is also mayor pro tem.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION WEST TEXAS CHAMBER COMMERCE

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE FOR EXPANSION ORGANIZATION BY PRESIDENT

LUBBOCK, May 14.—(P)—Continuation of the expansion program which is bringing many new organizations and counties into the organization, strengthening of the district organizations created during the last year, and more effective use of the referendum by which members cities can prescribe activities of the regional group were recommended by President Charles E. Combes in his address before the thirteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce today.

In keeping with the president's address, the committee on elections immediately reported that 77 new towns had become affiliated with the organization during the year and that 48 new directors had been added, bringing the total to 773. There are 107 cities now affiliated.

President Combes said there were at least 75 more towns in the area which should be taken into the organization.

Combes urged continued support of the co-operative marketing but said he believed the federal farm board should devote more attention to the problem.

SUNDAY MOVIE BILL GIVEN APPROVAL BY TEXAS GOVERNOR

REPRESENTATIVE FORBES TAKES STERLING TO TASK
IN HOUSE ADDRESS

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—Action of Gov. R. S. Sterling in signing the bill to legalize Sunday motion picture shows and theatrical performances was bitterly denounced in a privileged address to the house today by Representative Forbes of Weatherford. Forbes the champion of the prohibition cause in the legislature, claimed that had disregarded the pleas and prayers of the religious element of the state by signing the bill. Sterling, he said, the bill yesterday. It will permit local communities to determine if Sunday shows shall be held.

"If Sterling had paid as little attention to the prayers of the religious people as he did on the movie bill, he would not be governor today," Forbes shouted. "The religious people are keenly disappointed at his action in yielding to the pleas of the movie bloc."

"My arguments against the bill did not have a feather's weight."

ELEVATOR GIRL SHOT BELL BOY TOO YOUNG TO MARRY

ARILENE, May 14.—(P)—Buddie Rutherford, 18, bell boy at a hotel here, was fighting for life in a hospital here today, and Cleora Moxley, 22, elevator girl at the same hotel, was at liberty under $1,000 bond on an assault to murder charge as a result of a shooting late yesterday in an attorney's office where the pair said they went for legal advice on marriage.

Rutherford, in a statement from the operating table, told officers an argument followed his statement and he was too young to marry, and that as he turned to leave the room, he was shot in the back. The bullet lodged near the spine just below the heart, and doctors today had not attempted to remove it due to the patient's weakened condition.

The girl has made no statement. Rutherford was given only a slight chance to live.

Student Killed, Two Injured in Auto Accident

ADA, Okla., May 14.—(P)—One student of East Central State Teachers college here was dead and two others, both stars on the college basketball team, were injured as the result of an automobile accident.

C. J. Edwards of Ada, was burned to death after the automobile in which the three were riding had been struck by a freight train on the outskirts of Stone-wall, 12 miles south of here last night.

Barton Carlton, forward on the basketball team and conference score leader, and Ted Yearly, also forward on the team, were injured.

PRISONER HANGS SELF.
BURLINGTON, Iowa, May 14.—(P)—Glenn Scott, 30, who was serving a 30-day sentence in the county jail on a bad check charge today hanged himself with his belt.

Scott left a note asking that authorities notify his widow in Minneapolis, and his father, Thomas Scott, at Victoria, Texas.

GIVEN TWO LIFE SENTENCES.
SAN ANTONIO, May 14.—(P)—Robert Lockett, 21, today was under two 99-year sentences for the holdup killing of Paul Kardow, a butcher. Yesterday, by agreement of counsel, he pleaded guilty to murder and robbery with firearms. The sentences will run concurrently and he will be eligible for parole in 25 years.

LAST OF ALLEGED FRANKSTON BANK ROBBERS ARRESTED

JACK WILSON HELD IN JAIL
AT TEXARKANA AFTER CAPTURE IN ARKANSAS

TEXARKANA, May 14.—(P)—Jack Wilson, 28, last of a quartet of men charged with the 11,000 robbery of the First State Bank of Frankston last December 10, was held in jail here today after his arrest last night near Ashdown, Ark.

He was captured at a farmhouse by a posse of officers from Anderson and Bowie counties, Texas, and from Little River county, Ark. Wilson waived extradition in returning to Texas and was held under heavy guard last night. Whether he would be returned to Frankston immediately had not been decided.

Sheriff Sutton of Sevier county, Ark., was expected to arrive here today to attempt to identify Wilson in connection with a recent bank robbery at Horatio, Ark.

Wilson recently purchased a home near Ashdown. Acting upon a tip that Wilson was in Little River county, Sheriff A. D. Brown of Anderson county came to Texarkana yesterday and the posse of officers was formed. When they entered Wilson's house with drawn guns, they found the house unoccupied. While seeking information from neighbors as to his whereabouts, they heard someone coming along a road. Hiding in the weeds, the officers waited until Wilson entered the house, and

CORTES MEETS; MARTIAL LAW IS CONTINUED

MADRID, May 14.—(P)—Catholic Spain went to church today after the riots of the past four days in which Catholic buildings in many of the big cities were laid waste by fire.

Today was the feast of the Ascension, one of the most important days in the Catholic calendar and a national holiday in Spain. The banks were closed, business and industry were suspended and the churches were thronged.

Cardinal Segura, primate of Spain, had fled to France on the way to Rome and charred ruins of churches and convents were guarded by soldiers, but the anti-Catholic disorders apparently had ended.

Martial law continued in most of the important cities, however.

Local Officers Clear Up Case With Arrest Four Corsicana Men

Weaving the threads of rumors, leads and counter information through weeks of intensive investigations, but plugging along with bull-dog-like tenacity, local officers have unraveled the mysterious kidnaping of Robert Cerf, 24, son of Isaac N. Cerf, president of the State National Bank here, Dec. 10, 1930, and the later payment of $15,000 ransom in Dallas for his release. This information was received by newspapermen at a conference held in Chief of Police W. S. Knight's office with Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse, Cleo G. Miller, county attorney; and R. D. Fleming, city police commissioner.

County Attorney Miller stated early Wednesday afternoon that the cases would be presented to the Navarro county grand jury Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and indictments will likely be returned late Wednesday afternoon.

The details of the long chase which extended into other states and caused the arrest and charges of false imprisonment to be filed against Jimmie Nash, Currie Caldwell, Doyle Nash, Chas. R. Hassell and one other man not yet arrested, were outlined by the officers.

Caldwell is being held in the Waxahachie, Ellis county jail; Hassell is in the Limestone jail in Groesbeck; Doyle Nash is being held in the Hill country jail in Hillsboro; and Jimmie Nash is being held in the Navarro county jail, but the three away from Corsicana will be returned to the Navarro county jail Wednesday afternoon. County Attorney Miller announced, and other charges may be filed against the quartet. The arrest of the fifth man is expected at any time.

Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse got the first lead that led to the solving of the kidnaping and it was through the efforts of Police Chief Knight and the sheriff that the arrests were made.

Jimmie Nash, Caldwell and Hassell have made statements concerning the affair to officers in which the others are involved. County Attorney Miller announced Wednesday afternoon that Jimmie Nash told him that they put in the demand note sent to the elder Cerf that they would kidnap his oldest boy for the purpose of making Cerf think those in the kidnaping were not acquainted with the family.

The original complaints against the five were filed in the court of Luke Varnell, justice of the peace, at Barry, County Attorney Miller stated. Witnesses summoned to appear before the grand jury Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock were Sheriff Pevehouse, Cleo G. Miller, Will S. Knight, I. N. Cerf, Robert Cerf, N. Suttle Roberts and the negro chauffeur for the Cerf family. The demands for the ransom will also be taken before the investigators during the afternoon, Miller continued.

County Attorney Miller said that Hassell told him he wrote the second and third notes to Cerf. The law on such cases is being looked up and briefed during the afternoon.

Hawkins Scarborough, judge of the thirteenth judicial district court for a number of years, was especially complimentary concerning the work done by Sheriff Pevehouse, County Attorney Miller, Police Chief Knight and others, who have been working on the case. "They deserve a word of credit for their work in this important case," the judge remarked, and are to be complimented highly.

I. N. Cerf, Corsicana banker and father of the abducted youth, appeared years younger within a few hours after the long case was culminated by the announcement from officials Wednesday morning but declared that he had nothing to say.

However, he appeared in a very jovial mood and was busy all during the day receiving the congratulations of his friends on the clearing up of the case.

Sheriff Pevehouse and City Detective Bruce Nutt arrested the Nash brothers, Jimmie, 34, and Doyle, 22, late Tuesday night, and it was reported that Jimmie Nash made a detailed statement relative to the incident in the case to the county and city officers early Wednesday morning.

With the arresting of the Nash brothers, four of the five men thought to be implicated in the kidnaping had been arrested and three made statements, officers have reported.

The work of the investigators has been secret for weeks, and nothing became known until the officers had those now in custody in jail and statements made. Conferences night and day for several days has been in progress, but no details were forthcoming of the events.

With the arresting of four suspects and the statements made to officers implicating others, Cleo G. Miller, Navarro county attorney, announced that the kidnaping of Robert Cerf, Corsicana youth, in December, 1930, and the subsequent payment of $15,000 for his release by his father, I. N. Cerf, had been cleared up, and it was intimated that the cases would be taken to the

Dallas Officers Search For Fifth Cerf Kidnapers

DALLAS, May 13.—(AP)—Dallas officers today began a search for a fifth man wanted by Corsicana officers in connection with the kidnaping of Robert Cerf, son of Isaac Cerf, Corsicana banker, last December 10. The police department identification bureau was checking the names of four men held in jail at Corsicana to determine whether any of them had a police record here. The fifth man was said by officers to be a well-known habitué of Dallas domino parlors and pool halls. Young Cerf was released by the kidnapers in Dallas after his father had paid $15,000 ransom.

dollar bills—place them in a brief case. Leave the bank at exactly 5 o'clock in your green Cadillac touring car. Drive at a moderate rate of speed so as to reach the south entrance to the Baker Hotel at exactly 7:30 o'clock. A man will come out, dressed in light trousers, dark overcoat, derby hat, and wearing large driving glasses. This man will either take the money or tell you where to deliver it. Do not have anyone following you for this man will be fully protected and if you should succeed in getting this man killed it will avail you nothing as men are cheap and our men will not be taken alive. If this man does not come out circle the block slowly until he does come out. If you should report this to the police or a detective agency, we will know it in 15 minutes and your son will be on his way to Chicago and the price will be $20,000. If you do exactly as we say your son will be returned to you unharmed in a few hours, but if not, you will never see your son again and our answer will come in a letter.

Second Demand. The second letter was left on the porch like the first, and an anonymous phone call also announced its arrival. This time Robert answered the call. It was learned, and was the first to find the note. The second note called for $8,000, and was received Jan. 2, and instructed Cerf to leave the bank and drive to the Raleigh Hotel in Waco and promised that two men would receive the money and that the Cerfs would not be bothered again.

This letter came Jan. 6, and was delivered through the mail and bore a Corsicana postmark, instructing that the $10,000 be carried to the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas. The kidnaping was reported to a private detective agency after receipt of the second demand, and to police officers after the third was received.

On the day of the kidnaping Robert had been in Dallas with members of the family and did not return to Corsicana until late in the afternoon.

Young Cerf thought he knew the man who invited him to ride on the night of the kidnaping and got in the car. A fake hold-up was staged when the two other men boarded the car and took possession, starting on the trip west. Young Cerf said he was well treated by his captors while a prisoner.

The actual payment of the $15,000 ransom was made by N. Suttle Roberts, vice president of the State National Bank of which the elder Cerf is president, and close personal friend of the bank president.

Paid Kidnapers $15,000. After the elder Cerf had followed the instructions and broken the bottle of ink in front of the bank at 11 o'clock in the morning of Dec. 10, 1930, Mr. Roberts with a negro chauffeur, driving the green Cadillac touring car, started on the drive to Dallas at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. It is thought that a lookout man at the bank saw the car and reported to the police.

Peris spied the car and sped away in a Ford roadster. About three miles south of the Trinity river bridge on the Corsicana-Dallas road a grey Ford roadster came out of a lane and followed the Cadillac. As the Cerf car slowed down, another car appeared, and the drive continued. When the road was apparently clear, near the Trinity river bridge, the men drew closer, and the Cerf car stopped suddenly, and the gangster car passed them. One of the men, it was revealed, standing on the running board, jumped off with a pistol in each hand, almost fell, and appeared nervous. He advanced upon the Cerf car and ordered the occupants to "Stick 'em up."

"Where is it?" the gangster demanded.

"Where is what?" countered

TEMPLE MAN NAMED PRINCIPAL OF HIGH SCHOOL NEXT YEAR

Grady St. Clair for the past eight years assistant principal of the Temple high school, and assistant dean of the Temple junior college, was elected principal of the Corsicana high school, to succeed W. H. Norwood, at a meeting of the board of education at the high school Tuesday night. Teachers for next year were named, and other routine matters were taken up.

Mr. St. Clair has made an enviable record during his incumbency in Temple, and comes to Corsicana with the highest qualifications and recommendations. W. H. Norwood was recently named superintendent to succeed H. D. Miller, who resigned to accept the superintendency of the Wichita Falls public schools, and presidency of the Wichita Falls junior college.

Plans for the 1931 summer school were worked out at the meeting, and J. G. Willard, head of the high school science department, was selected as principal. The tuition of courses was reduced from last year. Other teachers named for the summer school include: Misses Mary Culbertson, Anna Belle Kiber, Sara Holman, Ruby Galloway, and Mrs. Pearl Avery. The school will open on Tuesday, May 22, and continue for 48 teaching days.

The following prices which were reduced from $2 to 4, per month, were announced: grades 1-3, $10; grades 4-7, one subject, $10, two subjects, $14; and three or more subjects, $18; senior high school grades, one subject, $12; two subjects, $16; and three subjects, $20. All of the classes, with the exception of the primary grades, which will be held in the Houston shack, will be held in the senior high school building.

Friday, May 22, has been set as the deadline for the teachers elected to return their signed contracts.

C. T. Banister, and Mrs. H. R. Stroube, drew two year terms as members of the board of education, and Mrs. W. C. Adams, one year.

Mrs. W. T. Shell drew terms of three years each. Hereafter members of the board will be elected for three year periods, instead of for two years as in the past.

Roberts. Then the money was delivered to the gangsters, and Roberts and the chauffeur was ordered to go on and were advised that Robert would be taken care of.

The kidnaping caused much excitement in Corsicana when the details finally became known, and an intensive campaign was inaugurated by local and other officers, including those of Dallas county. The Navarro county grand jury for the January term investigated the affair some, but sufficient evidence had not been obtained to return indictments or reports were returned by the investigators.

Pevehouse Gets Evidence. For months, officers sought to locate the kidnapers, but with little or no success, Sheriff Pevehouse finally managed to procure sufficient evidence to arrest Hassell.

It is not known whether the Dallas county officers and grand jury will take any cognizance of the cases or not. William McCraw, fiery district attorney of Dallas county, was quoted shortly after the investigation began that Dallas county would likely leave the case up to the Navarro county officers.

Soon after the kidnaping of Cerf became known, Representative Petch of Fredericksburg, introduced a bill in the Texas legislature, which since has become a law and effective, making it a death penalty for kidnaping in Texas. Under the old law, a prison term is the only penalty where the victim was not a minor and where the victim was not taken out of the state.

The case attracted nationwide attention.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS URGED TO HELP PARTY TAKE STAND ON PROHIBITION LAW BY SHOUSE

AUSTIN, May 13.—(P)—Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic National executive committee, urged Texans last night to help the party take a definite stand on prohibition at its next national convention.

Shouse advocated a change, speaking of "the evils that have grown up under prohibition," but added he would rather see the party make a declaration for continuance of present conditions than side-step the issue.

The national party leader spoke on invitation of the legislature and enough outsiders were present to fill the house chamber and gallery. Gov. Sterling and several members of the legislature sat on the platform.

The economic question and not prohibition should be the paramount issue in next year's campaign, Shouse insisted. He assailed the Hoover administration for its asserted failure to cope with the economic crisis, the continuation of which he ascribed as due in no small to the "Hoover-Grundy" tariff.

The speaker was applauded loudly when he referred several times to Woodrow Wilson. He criticized President Hoover for not paying the proper tributes to President Wilson, "the man who made him."

"The democratic party in 1930 won not so much a victory, as an opportunity," Shouse said. "Its future will depend upon the way it takes advantage of that opportunity."

On the power question, Shouse asserted the democratic doctrine was that sources of power belong to the people and must be preserved to the people.

Shouse was introduced by J. Adams of Dallas, democratic national committeeman for Texas, who had been presented by Edgar E. Witt, lieutenant governor. Witt stated he believed that never again would "the democrats have to be preached to in order to get them to come to the aid of their party."

Adams commended Shouse and John J. Raskob, chairman of the executive national committee, for "making the democratic party militant 365 days out of the year."

He asked Texas democrats not to become embroiled in controversial issues and he told Shouse at the conclusion of the meeting that "Texas is more interested in bread than in liquor."

LEGISLATURE IS PUTTING HOUSE IN ORDER TO VACATE MANY MEASURES EXPECTED ENCOUNTER OPPOSITION IN CLOSING DAYS

AUSTIN, May 13.—(P)—Having decided yesterday to adjourn May 22, the legislature today was in position to begin putting its house in order for the vacating.

A majority of the free conference committee on congressional redistricting yesterday agreed on a bill but indications were that the legislature would not vote on the bill.

The bill would give one of the three new districts to the South Plains of West Texas, another to the sheep and goat region about San Angelo and the third to South Texas.

Congressman Clay Stone, Briggs of Galveston and Joseph J. Mansfield of Columbus were placed in different districts but the rearrangement caused the Galveston district to extend from Houston to the Gulf.

The house expected to resume work on the departmental appropriations bill today with a strong possibility the $212,000,000 bond issue would come up for another vote. It failed last week by eleven votes.

Hill Highway Move Bill. Yesterday the house killed a move to transfer the highway department to Waco and voted to appropriate $500,000 for construction of a highway building here.

Free conference committees had agreed on both truck bills and the reports were ready for adoption or rejection by the legislature.

A hearing on the Howsley bill to increase the oil severance powers of the railroad commission and to speed up trial of injunction suits against the commission was set for this afternoon and tonight.

Several East Texans had expressed opposition to the bill and a substitute had been prepared.

The senate yesterday passed a house bill which would appropriate $500,000 to repay farmers in several West Texas counties for losses suffered as a result of pink boll worm quarantine in 1929 and 1930. However, the bill was so amended that its total was run up to $1,000,000. The senate voted to add $500,000 to pay counties for losses they suffered in tick eradication work.

TAX EXEMPTION RESOLUTION WAS PASSED BY SENATE

AUSTIN, May 13.—(P)—The senate voted 28 to 1 today to pass a house resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution exempting $3,000 of the taxable value of homesteads from state ad valorem tax levies. As passed by the house, the resolution would have exempted $2,000 of the value.

Homesteads of persons within counties receiving remissions of state taxes would not be exempted from ad valorem taxation.

The house immediately concurred in the senate amendments to the resolution. The proposed amendment will be submitted to the people during the general election in 1932.

The senate voted 13 to eight against printing the Johnson delinquent tax collections bill on a minority report. Senator Woodard of Coleman, sponsor of the bill, immediately moved to reconsider the vote. The Woodward motion was withdrawn.

Greer charged East Texas was not given a fair break in the new bill. He stated East Texas districts were given more than their proportionate share of the new districting increases since oil development and certain West Texas districts were left "light in order that a new district might be carved around the oil fields."

The bill would give one of the three new districts to the South Plains of West Texas, another to the sheep and goat region about San Angelo and the third to South Texas.

Charged With Theft Of Bale of Cotton

Jim Jackson, well known negro, employee of the E. K. Moore cotton yard for many years, was arrested and lodged in the county jail Wednesday morning on a complaint for the alleged theft of a bale of cotton, officers reported at the sheriff's office Wednesday afternoon.

graduation for senior high pupils, and Saturday night the senior play, "He's My Pal." Don't forget the date of senior play has been changed and will be May 18 instead of May 14. The public is invited and there is no admission charge for any program.

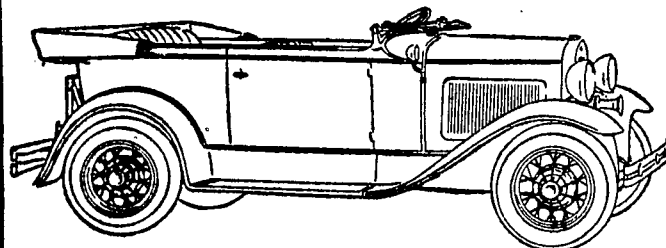

FORD BRAKES ARE UNUSUALLY EFFECTIVE

Reliability and safety due to simple design and careful construction

ONE of the first things you will notice when you drive the Ford is the quick, effective action of its four-wheel brakes.

They are unusually safe and reliable because they are mechanical, internal expanding, with all braking surfaces fully enclosed. This prevents mud, water, sand, etc., from getting between the band and drum and interfering with brake action.

Other outstanding features of the Ford are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, torque-tube drive, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, Rustless Steel, reliability, economy, and long life. You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

Is Your Face Covered With Pimples?

Wichita Falls, Texas—"My son was in poor health when he was about twenty years of age. His blood became thin and he was pale. He was also troubled with his stomach and his face broke out with pimples. Finally, I decided to have him try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time he had taken a few bottles of the 'Discovery' he was completely relieved of all these troubles, his blood was healthy, and he had no more stomach trouble."—Mrs. Beulah Singleton, 1101 18th St. Tablets or liquid, Druggists.

Three Demand Notes. The elder Cerf received three demands for money in connection with the kidnaping. The first demand was left on the front porch of the Cerf residence on West Fourth avenue shortly after young Cerf was abducted. The first note demanded $15,000. The second note was delivered on the night of Jan. 2, 1931, demanding $8,000 and the third letter, which came through the mail Tuesday, Jan. 6, 1931, raised the demand to $10,000 because the demand for $8,000 had not been paid. The second and third demands caused the kidnaping to be reported to local officers, as the elder Cerf had followed the instructions of the first note in detail and the affair was not reported to police or private agencies. The first note was weighted down with a large screw driver, written on brown writing paper and was in a common white envelope. The letter said: "By his not returning and by this letter you will know we have kidnapped your son. He will not be harmed providing you follow our instructions in detail. Go to the bank at the regular time and say nothing to anyone about this. At exactly 11 o'clock tomorrow morning break a bottle of ink in front of the bank. As soon as you return from lunch secure the money in these denominations—$5,000 in fifty dollar bills, $5,000 in twenty dollar bills, $5,000 in ten Naturally you are adverse to your daughter wearing glasses when she grows up unless it is vitally necessary. If her vision indicates impairment of vision now immediate attention with proper glasses will likely correct the trouble so that the need for them will be temporary.

THE FAMILY AND THE NATION.

Periodically we are greatly disturbed by the news that marriages are falling off and that divorces are on the increase. And so on the heels of this news
there comes numerous declarations as to how serious this evil is, and even more numerous suggestions as to how it may be speedily checked.

No intelligent man or woman who will give any thought to the problem
needs to be told how serious it is. It menaces practically everything we hold dear in our social order. It touches not only the lives of those immediately implicated; it involves somehow the very foundations of sociability. It means that in something fundamental to our social welfare and happiness we are not succeeding as we ought to.

Nor will any intelligent man or woman close his ear to any of the many suggestions which will presently be given as to how the solution of this problem must be approached to be effective. We shall be told that it ought to be made more difficult to get married, and less easy to get a divorce.
We shall be told that the problem is not merely an economic one, although it is that too in part; they will say that it is individual in so far as anything can be individual; and they will tell us that it is also a social problem.

In the meantime there are those who have given much thought not merely to the present situation, but to the historical aspect of it also, and the conclusions of these thinkers may be worthy of consideration.
They will tell us that the family is the basic unit of civilization; that where any community or nation has clung to this basic family unit, its progress has not been endangered, and where the integrity of the family unit was assailed,
there decay was inevitable.

The historical significance
may be clear to everyone;
but more clear even than that is the logic of it. It is within this little group that the ideals are developed which are so necessary to human progress and permanence; and it is through this group that these ideals are maintained. When for any reason the integrity of this group is threatened,
we are told, then all civilization is threatened, for, it can not be too often repeated, the family is the unit on which the whole structure of civilization is built.

In proportion as we can bring ourselves to realize the importance of this fact;
in proportion as we can keep out the theories of this or that, or fads of one kind or another from our thinking about the family in that proportion we may avert the danger of which the increase of divorce and decrease of marriages is only a symptom. Whatever can be done in the home or by any other educative influence outside of the home,
to keep before us the fact that except as we maintain the family intact the outlook is a dark one—this is worth doing. No nation can continue to be great, except its greatness is based on an enduring family relation.

JUST FOLKS

THE FISH THAT GETS AWAY
Some mourn the fish that gets away.
And boast his size and weight.
They stop their friends at night to say
How sorry was their fate.
Almost unto the net they'd be caught.
This beauty superfluous.
It seemed to them they'd had him caught.
And then he snapped the line.

Oh, yes, they had some fish to show
For all the time they'd spent;
Some luck they'd been allowed to know.
But they were not content.
The ones they'd caught seemed rather small.
When put upon display.
And could not be compared at all
With that which got away.

He broke but once where sunbeams dance
Upon the water's blue.
And though at him they'd but a glance
His weight and size they knew Not one in all their splendid catch
Which came to them that day
For beauty could begin to match
The fish that got away.

Perhaps against us one and all
Could lie the self-same charge;
The joys we catch seem very small.
The ones we lose seem large.
We pass our many blessings by.
As though no worth had they.
And only we magnify
The joy that gets away.

EARNING AN EDUCA-TION

Despite the fears of discourage critics, the American youth, it seems, still retains high qualities of fortitude and ambition. This fact has been brought out by Prof. Clarence E. Clewell, head of the University of Pennsylvania's placement service, in a report discussing the hardships of the student who earns his way through college.

According to Prof. Clewell, the students working thus for their education face extraordinary hardships and discouragements.
Many wear themselves out to mental wrecks in the effort to accomplish the double task of earning a living and a degree. Very few,
however, earn even a bare living wage during their college years. Those universities which report high totals of earnings by students probably include in the figures the wages paid members of night classes who hold regular daytime jobs in industry. For the youth who must fit his employment into the hours not devoted to college activities
the opportunities are meager.

College students seeking employment usually turn to waiting on tables, ushering,
clerking in hotels or stores,
leading boys' clubs, operating night telephone switchboards or similar ill-paid jobs. The undergraduate's best opportunities to earn money occur in the summer vacation period, when full-time employment may be had. One Pennsylvania man, for example, made $700
last summer in sales commissions.

To the youths who in spite of the discouragements cited by Prof. Clewell, continue their difficult task commendation is due.
Acquiring a college education is in itself a full-time job, which means far more than simply attending classes. The boy who adds to his duties the work of earning a living deserves
the cooperation of both college and prospective employer.

THE THOUGHTLESS
FEW.

The many suffer for the transgressions of the few.
This would be a platitude
if it were not that modernity has given it greater significance.

The most common way
the blameless many are made to expiate the wrongs of the few is through legislation. Things carried to excess invite prohibitory and restrictive legislation, although in moderation they would have escaped the lawmakers. But once they are embodied in the statutes the temperate are punished with the intemperate.

It is conceivable that there would be no speed laws compelling the motorist on the straight, broad and untraveled highway to drive as slowly as the one on the winding, narrow and busy thoroughfare if a thoughtless few had exercised reasonable care.

Among those resorting to poster advertising the complaint is common that there would now be heard no

BEAUTY AND UTILITY.

Two very contrary
phases of merchandising progress are to be discerned in the present distribution picture. One is the emphasis placed on novelty of design and the importance of color, while the other is a revival of the very old-fashioned idea of utility.

It is scarcely necessary to mention the strides made in pushing new designs and in accenting color. The new theory of style obsolescence has been on these developments—the modern product is not worn out, it passes out of style.

Of the new move to give utility its former value, less has been said, and yet it seems to be making headway in spite of, and perhaps because of, the trea-mendous effort to have many useful articles scrapped once something new appears. Some producers are striving hard to promote larger sales through superficial changes in their products, while some progressive distributors and other agencies are at work to discover and furnish what will give best service.

Both practices can be attributed directly to the buying public. Some consumers shop for replacement purposes only after the old article is worn out. Others, and this applies particularly to motor car buyers and fashion leaders, want the latest model or newest style irrespective of its utility or physical soundness. So the merchant is dealing with two different types of customers, and trying to satisfy the needs and demands of both. That he succeeds so well is the marvel of every reasonable consumer.

WHAT YOU ARE GOOD FOR.

The new psychology
tests which will probably be used more and more to influence children and young men and women in their adoption of a permanent line of work, are an indication of a radical change of attitude toward even such a vague thing as man's destiny. These tests and the attitude they indicate will undoubtedly work
a valuable improvement in the general process of learning, producing and living.

The tests, as they are beginning to be applied and perfected in schools and factories, are for the purpose of classifying individuals according to their natural abilities in a given field of work. The individual is rated as inferior or superior to a standard average, and the variety of tests to which his intellect is subjected is expected in time to bring out qualifications for a certain kind of effort. There is always the danger in a thing of this kind that it will develop into a repressive formula, by which individuals will be pigeon-holed without any opportunity to exercise their own desires. A certain classification in his early years in grade school might possibly lead an individual and his teachers to ignore latent qualifications that otherwise would have developed forcibly.

Furthermore, it is possible to see how a ruthless employment system might become the sole beneficiary of this test system, through a use of it to save employers the expense of wasted industrial training.
Efficiency at the expense of the individual, at the expense of the variable human factor in even the industrial life of a people is ultimately a loss to the system that institutes it. However, the very attitude that the institution of the test system indicates and stands for is probably an insurance against the system's misuse. This attitude is primarily human and secondary scientific.

This psychological test is forthcoming as a substitute for the old sacred notion that what God wills is somehow going to make itself known. It is the attempt of the new philosophy to take hold of things. It is the beginning of man's effort to decide things for himself with the intelligence God has given him.

PARENTHOOD.

A generation sophisticated, civilized and whatever are the other past partici-
pal adjectives will welcome
the latest application of the debunking process to the greatly overrated industry of parenthood.

What would be the present market price of a non-interest-bearing bond maturing in 18 years and at the end of that time worth nothing? Yet that, according to official figures, is the sort of investing the American people are practicing on a huge scale.

A baby is born to a family enjoying, more or less,
an income of $2,500 a year.
At the age of 18 years that baby will represent a parental expenditure of $10-000, not including the valuable but unpaid services of the mother. At 18 that baby will be worth $29,000, this being its future earnings during the life expecttancy. Of this net profit
the return to the investing parents is precisely zero.
From the age of 18 to 24
the "investment" will spend his earnings on life and haberdashery. About the age of 24 he will put on his hat and say, "So long, Ma and Pop; I've found a girl."

Once upon a time the farmer could depend upon his multitudinous brood to supply his farm hands and run the farm for him when he became too old to plow.
Now his children spend their youth in school and leave the old farm for the city immediately upon graduation. And urban children, instead of supporting their parents in their old age, acquire a family of their own which they are unable to support properly or seek their fortunes in parts too remote to remember their debt to their parents.

BRANCH EMPLOYMENT
OFFICE TO BE SOUGHT
BY LOCAL CHAMBER

A branch office of the employment service of the U. S. Department of Labor will be sought by the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce following the action of the board of directors at their regular bi-weekly meeting Tuesday morning. Other routine business occupied the session.

The quarterly financial statement of the chamber was submitted to the board by the secretary and received considerable attention. It was pointed out that the program of money would have to be enforced during the coming year.

A memorandum from the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and from the United States Chamber of Commerce was read to the directors, asking them to consider the Senate bill that would place
the state in the accident insurance business. The directors questioned the advisability of such a procedure, and went on record as opposing the bill, and instructed the secretary to so notify the representatives of this county.

Membership of the Butler-Calhoun Company was announced at a meeting of the board of directors and one resignation reported by W. F.
McCammon, chairman of membership activities.

F. A. Pierce, county counselor for the East Texas Chamber of Commerce announced a meeting of District Four at Corsicana Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to be preceded by a meeting of the various community counselors of Navarro county in Corsicana Friday morning. He urged as many of the directors as possible to attend the Mexico meeting.

Secretary Harwell reported on the winter and spring activities of the unemployment bureau, in which 87 men affecting over 4,000 people were found to be unemployed in a survey through the city schools, and many of them placed for part time employment by the chamber. He reported that the future was uncertain and that if possible relief agencies should be established.

He reported the proposed establishments of branch offices in several Texas cities of the U. S. Department of Labor, and suggested that it might be possible to secure such a branch. It was pointed out that office room could be supplied the branch if it could be secured for Corsicana, and the president was empowered to name
a committee to pursue the location of an office here.

Feasibility of taking part in the publication costs of the next booklet printed by the U. S. Highway 75 association was discussed by the directors and it was agreed to pursue the matter further.

Members of the directorate suggested that other groups might be organized in the matter.

Among those present at the meeting were Allyn Lang, C. C.
Roberts, W. M. Spear, Max
Wolens, J. M. Dyer, F. N. Drane,
T. B. Ferguson, W. O. Harwell,
F. A. Pierce and W. F. McCammon.

Johnny P. Garitty, district agent of the Magnolia Petroleum company, was elected president of the Lions club for the ensuing year to succeed Clyde Foster, at the club's meeting at the Navarro hotel at noon Tuesday. Additional officers were elected, and short extemporaneous talks were made by several members of the club.

In charge of the program were
J. E. Butler, Dr. L. E. Kelton, and A. B. Douglas. President Clyde Foster named John Fortson, Milton Overman and G. L.

honorary life membership in the Texas State Medical association.

years old and until he was 22 he had received no formal education. After receiving an A. B. from Baylor, he studied at Yale for a time, then became a school principal at McKinney. He was recalled to Baylor as professor of history and economics and was elected president while he was studying for his doctor's degree at Yale. During his presidency the institution increased its enrollment fourfold and added several new school departments.
Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon, at an hour yet undesignated, from Waco Hall, main auditorium of the school. Dr. Brooks was pastor of the First Baptist church of Waco and lifelong friend of Dr. George W. Truitt of Dallas, now en route to Waco from Birmingham, Ala., where he was attending the Southern Baptist General Convention.
Dean W. S. Allen, acting president of the school, announced that classes were suspended until Monday.

Served Baylor Long.
Dr. Samuel Parker Brooks, who for more than a quarter of a century served as the president of Baylor University, died at his home in Waco, Texas, at the age of 74. He was a native of Alabama, where he was attending the Southern Baptist General Convention.
Dean W. S. Allen, acting president of the school, announced that classes were suspended until Monday.

Dr. Brooks was born in Millersville, Georgia, December 4, 1863. His father, Rev. S. E. Brooks, a Baptist minister, moved to Texas when the son was five years old, and located in Johnson county at Joshua.
Having had a consuming desire for an education since childhood, however, the young man was not discouraged when he started in school. At the age of 23 he taught a small rural school in Johnson county, from the proceeds of which work he was able to enter the high school department of Baylor at Waco at the age of 24, and continued his work in the institution until he was graduated with the A. B. degree in 1893 at the age of 30. Following his graduation at Baylor he entered Yale University from which he received another degree in 1894. He then returned to Texas where he taught for a while as principal of the public school at McKinney before being called to the chair of history and economics at Baylor University.

Named President in 1902.
After several years on the Baylor faculty, Dr. Brooks returned to Yale University to take his master's degree, and it was while pursuing his work there he was elected president of Baylor and returned to his alma mater as chief executive in the summer of 1902.
Under his leadership Baylor University more than trebled its resources and quadrupled its student body, greatly enlarged its curriculum and increased its academic standing among the other institutions of this country.
It was under Dr. Brooks' administration that the schools of education, law, and business, and many other departments were established. All the medical units at Dallas and the Baylor Hospital also came into being under his leadership.

Interested in General Education.
Although his chief interests were devoted to Baylor University, Dr. Brooks was active in promoting the cause of education in a general way and it was upon his call that the Texas Association of Colleges were organized on the Baylor campus in 1916. He was likewise vitally interested in public school and higher education in the state institutions and spoke extensively in behalf of general and Christian education in every section of the state.
In his early career as a member of the Baylor faculty he taught the first course in sociology ever given in this state, and in 1915 he was elected president of the Southern Sociological Congress.

Indicating the civic interests of Dr. Brooks, he was vice-president of the American Peace Society, spoke extensively in various parts of America in behalf of international peace, and in 1907 organized the Texas Peace Society, the first state peace body ever formed in this country.

He was interested also in the matter of good roads, and spoke over Texas in the interest of pending bond issues that made the present good roads system of the state possible. At the time of his death he was a member of the Brazos Valley Improvement Association which had for its object

While Dr. Brooks joined many other Texans in voting for Herbert Hoover in 1928, he considered himself a democrat and was widely used in various parts of the country as a speaker in behalf of the democratic ticket in 1912 when Woodrow Wilson was elected president the first time.

Active in Religious Circles.
Dr. Brooks was active in religious circles. From 1914 to 1917 he was president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, and in 1910 and again in 1917 he was elected vice-president of the Southern Baptist Convention. In 1924 and 1925 he was president of the Southern Baptist Education Association and at the time of his death was vice-president of the board of trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky. In January of 1931, he was invited by the Baptist Bible Institute to deliver the Tharp lectures in "The Preacher from a Layman's Point of View."

In 1895, Dr. Brooks married Miss Mattie Sims, of Cleburne, a sweetheart from childhood, who survives him along with two children. They are Miss Aurelia Brooks, a member of the English faculty at Baylor, and Sims Brooks, a Waco attorney. The president's grand-daughter, who is survived also by a brother, Prof. George Brooks of the state school for deaf mutes at Austin.
Dr. Brooks was a member of a number of Masonic bodies, the Maccabees, and the Rotary Club. Numerous colleges over the country had conferred on him the honorary degree of LL.D.

Neff Is Probable Successor Brooks

WACO, May 14.—(P)—It was apparent today there would be no haste in filling the vacancy at Baylor University caused by the death of Dr. S. P. Brooks, president for more than 29 years.
Ultimate selection of former Gov. Pat Neff, at one time a friend of Dr. Brooks as executive head of the university, was regarded as a strong probability. Mr. Neff has been chairman of the board of trustees for years and is closely identified with its work and policies and lay leader of the Baptist denomination in Texas.
Mr. Neff has almost a complete sixty-year record as a public official to serve, but some of his friends believed he would resign his state office should the Baylor presidency be offered him.

Waco members of the board of trustees expressed belief that there is no emergency demanding an immediate filling of the presidency. Both the teaching and administrative staffs have worked together in perfect harmony and cooperation, members of the board said.
The board has delegated to Dean W. S. Allen the responsibility of representing the president in all matters during his illness and there is no reason to believe this same arrangement will not continue during the interim. The board may find it desirable to consider all issues involved in the selection of a man to succeed Dr. Brooks.

Others mentioned in connection with the presidency were Dean Allen, Dr. T. D. Brooks, dean of the department of education, and Dr. J. F. Kimball, vice president of the school and in active charge of the Baylor Medical College at Dallas.

Legislature Honors Educator.
AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—The Texas legislature today adopted resolutions expressing deep regret at the death of Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor university. The house will adjourn today in honor of his memory. The resolutions passed.

LAST OF ALLEGED FRANKSTON BANK ROBBERS ARRESTED

then rushed in upon him. They said he admitted his identity. Three other men charged in the Frankston robbery were arrested last January. Joel Carroll was captured after a gun fight with Fort Worth officers in which he and one policeman were wounded. W. W. Quinn and John C. Elg were arrested in connection with a Montgomery county robbery and later were identified as members of the Frankston bank robber quartet.
Wilson had been living near Ashdown with his wife and two daughters for about six weeks, under the name of L. L. Bishop. His wife is ill in a hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., and the two daughters are with her. Wilson formerly lived at LaRue, Texas.

PALESTINE, May 14.—(P)—Jack Wilson, one of four men indicted in connection with the $11,000 robbery of the First State Bank of Frankston last December 10, today was reported held in jail at Texarkana after his arrest last night by Sheriff A. D. Brown of Anderson county.
His arrest was reported effected at a farmhouse near Ashdown, Ark., by a posse of men headed by Sheriff Brown and District Attorney T. E. Greenwood, of Palestine.

The four men who robbed the bank were ordered printed in the journals of both houses.
Dr. Brooks was characterized as having exemplified the highest ideals of manhood during his life. "Dr. S. P. Brooks was universally regarded as Waco's most valuable citizen," Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt of Waco stated. "I doubt if in the whole state of Texas there is a man who has had a greater influence for the upbuilding of youth and maintaining of high ideals of citizenship and right living. In his passing Texas has lost one of its foremost citizens."

Benedict Praises Brooks.
AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—Glowing tributes to Dr. Samuel P. Brooks, president of Baylor university, who died early today in Waco after a lingering illness were expressed today by those who had known him for years as educator, college executive and personal friend.

"He was altogether splendid, not only as an educator but as a man," was the tribute of Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University of Texas. "When you call him a 'fine person' you sum it all up."
Dr. Benedict commented on his remarkable rise from section hand worker to college president, clarifying that when he assumed the presidency at Baylor at 38 he was one of the youngest college presidents in Texas. He also pointed out Dr. Brooks' interest in international peace and good will, declaring him a leader in those fields.

Pickpocket Has Pride; Volunteers To Go to Prison

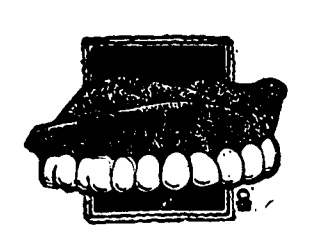

CHICAGO, May 14.—(P)—Someone may be money ahead because of David Miller's civic spirit.
"If it seems best," said Miller, an alleged pickpocket, to Municipal Judge Justin F. McCarthy, "I will go to jail for the rest of the public celebration."

There are large crowds on the streets of Chicago these days and Judge McCarthy did not hesitate in accepting Miller's suggestion.

Frankston bank escaped after a gun fight with two Anderson county officers.
Search for Wilson, a Hunt county man, had extended over several states. He was expected to be brought back to Palestine.

Joel Carroll, W. W. Quinn and J. C. Elg also were indicted in connection with the robbery. Carroll is in the Anderson county jail and Quinn and Elg are in the state penitentiary at Huntsville, serving sentences from Montgomery county assessed them for bank robbery.

REPUBLICANS TAKE CASH AND PROPERTY DEPOSED MONARCH

the republican government today to turn over to the minister of finance, Indalecio Prieto, all funds credited to Alfonso De Bourbon, the deposed king, who is in exile in Paris.

The Baco De Epana was empowered to take charge temporarily of all personal property of the former monarch and to create a special account for accruing rents until the forthcoming constitutional convention decides what to do with the money.

Consuls and representatives of the republic abroad were ordered to make a report on Alfonso's investments and properties in other countries, the government decree charging that Alfonso had not been king since 1933, when he permitted General Primo De Rivera to become dictator and that he had misused his royal office for his personal enrichment.
Simultaneously, the government announced that full authority to check disorders which have culminated in the burning of scores of churches and church buildings had been given to Miguel Maura, minister of interior. Maura immediately demanded resignations of the governors at Alicante, Cadiz, Cordova, and Malaga, charging them with laxity in repressing disorders, and announced he was prepared to declare martial law throughout Spain. A number of police officers were removed of their posts, charged with laxity.

STORMY SESSION FORECAST FOR COMMISSION EUROPEAN UNION AT GENEVA FRIDAY

GENEVA, May 14.—(P)—A stormy session with Soviet Russia and the Austro-German customs union in the spotlight is forecast for the commission on European Union which resumes its work here tomorrow.
It was only after four days of hot debate that the European body asked the soviets to join it and then only for studying factors in the European economic situation. Maxim Litvinoff, soviet foreign minister, in replying, cast some aspersions on the spirit of the commission, and announced:

"The soviet government has decided to take part in the forthcoming proceedings of the commission."

Sevilla was notified that farmers and peasants in the town of Alcala, Los Palacios and Umbretas had armed themselves to defend the churches of the province against communist attacks.
The attorney general, Angel Galarza, who Tuesday announced that indictments would be sought against Alfonso and other monarchists charging them with plotting the anti-church disorders, was appointed director general of public safety in Madrid.

Authorities believed order was being restored throughout the country. There have been no burnings of churches or serious rioting reported to Madrid since mid-afternoon Wednesday.

Republicans generally blame a recent pastoral letter of the cardinal, calling upon Roman Catholics to elect deputies for the approaching constitutional convention who would defend their faith, for the outbreaks against the churches.

A European Union, said Mr. Litvinoff, could hardly exclude Russia. He pointed out that Russia in Europe constitutes nearly 45 per cent of European territory; that Switzerland, which opposed Soviet participation in the commission, has only four-tenths of 1 per cent of Europe's area, and Norway, another objector to the soviets, amounts to only 3.1 per cent of geographical Europe.
"It is incomprehensible and surprising," the Moscow commissar declared, "that a group of European states should arrogate to themselves the right to decide on the admission or non-admission of another group of European states to a community which claims the title of 'Pan-European.'"

The Austro-German customs union will be introduced by Dr. Julius Curtius, German foreign minister. This disturbing question will be considered by the League of Nations' council next week.

SURRENDERS FOR SHOOTING LONGVIEW.
May 14.—(P)—Fred Allen, 30, who said his home was in radley, Ark., surrendered today to Sheriff Martin Hays in connection with the fatal shooting of H. M. (Doc) Greene, 28, last night in a Kilgore barbershop. Allen would make no statement. He said he came to Kilgore from Cleveland, Okla.

DIZZY DEAN WINS FOURTH GAME TO PUT BUFFS BACK IN LOOP LEAD

DUMOVICH STOPS CATS; SPUDS WIN STEERS SWAMPED

NEW TWISTS GIVEN TEXAS LEAGUE STANDING BY WEDNESDAY CONTESTS

By BILL PARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Wednesday night at Shreveport, Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, the boy who was packed and shipped back to the Houston Buffaloes because the St. Louis Cardinals claimed they had too many good pitchers, hurled his fourth straight win and back on top went the Buffaloes.
Dean let the Shreveport crew register two runs in the first two innings—after that he handed them whitewash for a 6 to 2 decision. Dean's fourth consecutive triumph, and Fort Worth's 7 to 1 defeat by the Galveston Buccaneers, gave the up and down Texas league pennant marathon a new twist with Fort Worth back in second place and the Buffaloes again in charge of the pennant parade with a half game lead.
Abe Miller hurled six innings for Shreveport and only eleven batters faced him. But Miller's fine relief hurling could not erase the second inning when Houston charged across with five runs, driving Estrada to the bench and treating the veteran Joe Pate just as bad.

Cats Are Routed.
Dumovich southpawed the Fort Worth Cats into a 7 to 1 defeat at Fort Worth to help his Buccaneers square the series at one all. Dumovich found trouble plenty the last three innings, but had enough stuff to escape without serious Fort Worth threats turning the tide.

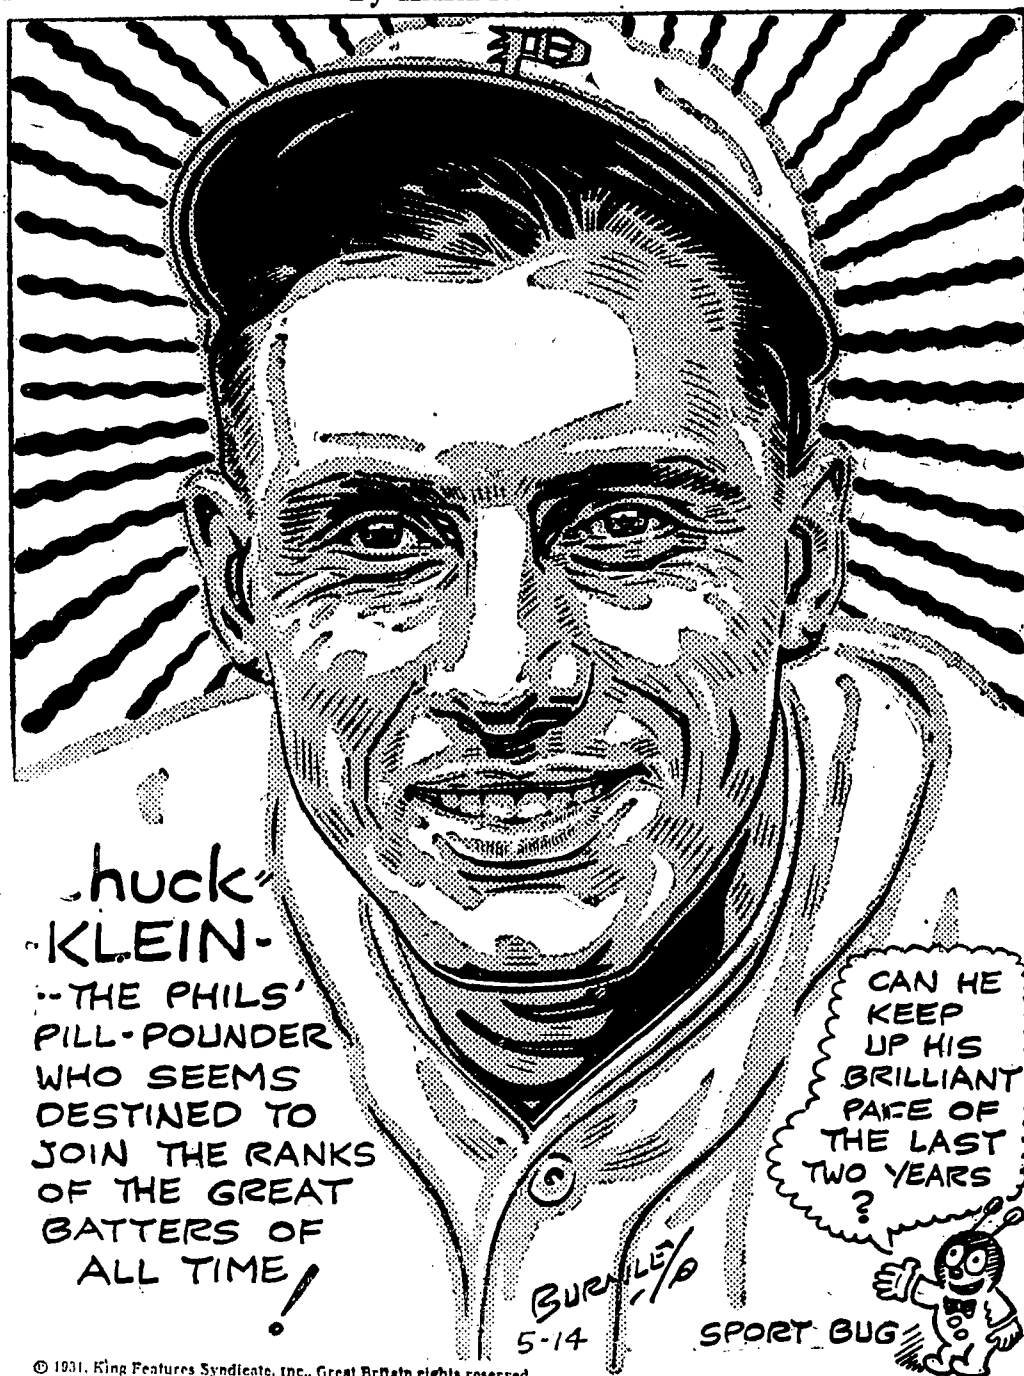

Up at Wichita Falls, the Spudgers and San Antonio staged a field day with the former victors in the third to square their series with San Antonio. The Spudgers were forced to rampage for six runs in the seventh inning after San Antonio had scored four runs in the first half of the same inning.

At Dallas, the Beaumont Exporters made it two straight over the Steers with a 12 to 3 verdict. The Steers scored a run in the first inning and when it looked like a mound battle between Garland of Dallas and Malicky of Beaumont, but Garland, backed by miserable support, went to pieces in the third to let Beaumont score five runs. The Exporters simply bunched fourteen base hits with four walks, seven stolen bases, three wild pitches plus all those Dallas errors to take the game back.

JOE VOSMICK BENCHED
CLEVELAND, May 14.—(AP)—Joe Vosmick, Cleveland's sensational recruit of the early days of the American League season, is going to warm the bench for a while at least. Manager Roger Peckinpaugh said Vosmick was supplanted in left field today by the veteran Charley Jamieson. Vosmick's batting has steadily declined and Peck believes a rest of a week or so is the cure.

"The Best Since Speaker"

By HARDIN BURNLEY

huck KLEIN—
THE PHILS' PILL-POUNDER WHO SEEMS DESTINED TO JOIN THE RANKS OF THE GREAT BATTERS OF ALL TIME!

CAN HE KEEP UP HIS BRILLIANT PACE OF THE LAST TWO YEARS?

OUTSTANDING outfielders have been many in the major leagues since Tris Speaker was finally retired by time a few seasons back but none probably has shown the combined hitting power and fielding class of Charles H. "Chuck" Klein of the Phils. Like the immortal Speaker, "Chuck" patrols center field. Klein was reaching for a rattle back in 1907 as Tris was breaking in with the Boston Red Sox back in 1907. When the old "Gray Eagle" left the majors in 1928, "Chuck" was just getting his start with the Phils. He's now 25 and already has been a sensation for two years.

Klein has yet to develop the sheer grace and unerring skill with which Speaker for years snagged difficult flies, but that should come with more experience. Thus far, "Chuck" has been a much longer and heavier hitter than Speaker even in his glorious prime. Klein's two-year (1929-30) batting average was .369. Last season he drove in 158 runs for the Phils, and—in the popular specialty—he slammed out 40 home runs, three less than he poked the previous year. His fielding, while satisfactory, did not land him in the topnotch ten among the gardeners in either 1929 or 1930, but he did compile the unique record of 42 assists last season. These brief statistics give a vivid idea of how potent a player "Chuck" has been thus far with the Phils.

This year, Klein started like the proverbial house afire. He made two homers in the opening game, and another, the next day, with a single, double and triple thrown in for full measure. There was considerable let-down after those explosions; nevertheless, "Chuck" is hitting above .300 at this writing and fielding better than ever. Klein is facing some stiff competition in the Philly outfield which also features Buzz Arlett, slugging Pacific Coast purchase, and Hal Lee, another precocious willow-wielder. With such pace-making, "Chuck" should demonstrate this year whether he merits ranking as "the best" center fielder since Tris Speaker's time.

TEXAS LONGHORNS MEET AGGIES IN GAME SATURDAY

LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY EXPECTED FOR CHAMPIONSHIP GO

COLLEGE STATION, May 14.—(Spl.)—The largest crowd ever to attend a baseball game at Kyle Field is expected here Saturday when "Uncle Billy" Disch's Texas Longhorns, perennial Southwest conference champions, defend their title against Coach Roswell Higginbotham's oncoming Texas Aggies. Not since 1922 when the Baylor Bears wrested the championship from them, have the Longhorns faced so serious a threat against the title they have held every year but one since the Southwest conference was organized.

Saturday's clash is scheduled to start promptly at 3 o'clock. James Sullivan, business manager of athletics, has been receiving long distance calls all week from many of the neighboring towns requesting reservations for the game.

Saturday's game will be the last of the season for both the Aggies and the Steers and a win over Texas would give the Aggies the bunting.

Never before in Texas A. and M. college baseball history have the Aggies gone so far through a season with but one conference loss, and even though they should lose Saturday's engagement the Aggies still will have established a record for themselves.

Sarazen-Farrell Sail For British Golf Tournaments

NEW YORK, May 14.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell left today in pursuit of the 1931 British open championship at Carnoustie in June. Mrs. Catherine Farrell accompanied her son, making her first trip in 36 years back to her home at Mountrath, Ireland. Mrs. Sarazen also was in the party.

"There was no outstanding favorite this year," Farrell said, "and the British open should be an unusually interesting event. What would happen if an Irishman won in Scotland?" he added.

Sarazen said he intended to play the lighter and larger ball adopted in the United States this year instead of the old sphere still used in Great Britain. The new ball, he said, gives just as much distance and far better control.

McAtee Only Past Winner With Mount

By AL DEMAREE

(Former Ficher N. Y. Giants)

Outside of John Linus McAtee, no other rider that has ridden a Derby winner will have a mount this year. All the other boys who have finished out in front in the past are dead or have grown too heavy.

The owner who gives this jockey a leg up on a logical candidate is doing a smart thing, as McAtee is a rider of the first water and has two Kentucky Derbies to his credit to date, that of Whiskery in 1927 and Clyde Van Dusen in 1929. In both instances McAtee's riding was greatly responsible for the victory.

If Equipoise, Twenty Grand, Mate, Inco, Ormesby, Oswego and Blenheim go to the post the 1931 Kentucky Derby will live up to its best traditions and the entries can stay in their barns.

Joe McCarthy Says No "Setup" Teams in American This Year

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—(AP)—If there are any set-ups in the American League this year, Joe McCarthy, new skipper of the New York Yankees, hasn't seen them yet.

Marcelo Joe, paying his first visit to St. Louis as an American League pilot, explained today he had not yet seen the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers in action, but called the other clubs "good ball teams."

An interviewer reminded McCarthy that Connie Mack recently picked the Yankees to give the Athletics plenty of trouble before the season is over.

"I have the greatest respect for Mr. Mack's judgment," he replied with a smile and "I'll take his word for it, especially as I am quite sure he's right."

McCarthy said the Athletics were the team the Yankees would have to beat to win the pennant, "and that's not just paying back Mr. Mack for the nice things he has said of us, either."

Bill Montana and Walter Logan are the headliners in tonight's wrestling affair, and indications Thursday morning were that a large crowd would witness the opening matches in the new site—the Homer Pace building, corner South Main street and West Seventh avenue.

The annual track and field meet for the Texas conference athletes gets under way Thursday at Brownwood and will be completed Friday. Howard Payne is the pre-meet favorite to cop honors.

Considerable interest is being shown in the Southwestern conference golf tournament which opened in Dallas Thursday, with 20-odd golfers participating.

Davis Clark, Oak Cliff, defeated Jimmy Waller, Central High, Fort Worth, for the Texas high school golf title Thursday in Waco. Corsicana high school competed in the team meet in Waco Monday, but did not participate in the individual golfers' meet.

Houston returned to the top of the percentage table in the Texas League Thursday by downing Shreveport while Galveston was downing the Fort Worth Cats. Houston is back to half game to the good. Fort Worth and Houston have been see-sawing for the leadership for several days.

Beaumont turned in her second victory over the Dallas Steers in Dallas Wednesday afternoon, 12-3, and the Steers' 14-day home stay has not started off auspiciously.

Dizzy Dean, Houston, turned in another victory Wednesday night when he downed the Shreveport Sports.

Cotton McGee, high school lad, football player will be one of the principals in a preliminary match Thursday night.

Home run hitters Wednesday included Cochrane, Philadelphia Athletics; Miller, Philadelphia Athletics; Averill, Cleveland; Tobin, Dallas.

EASTERN CLUBS CONTINUE HOLD BALANCE POWER AMERICAN LOOP

ATHLETICS GAIN

WES FERRELL TREATED
ROUGHLY BY SENATORS;
NO NATIONAL GAMES

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Though held back by cold and wet weather since they reached the farthest western outposts, the eastern teams already have managed to demonstrate pretty conclusively that they still hold the balance of power in the American league.

They have won eleven of their first fourteen inter-sectional engagements. Through yesterday's games the champion Philadelphia Athletics had scored three straight over their western rivals, the New York Yankees had won a pair between rains, Washington had won three out of four and the Boston Red Sox three out of five.

But for a staunch stand by the Detroit Tigers the rout of the western clubs so far would have been complete. The Tigers have won all three victories credited to their section. Cleveland's Indians have made the most disappointing showing against the invaders, losing four straight and dropping within a week from the top to fifth place.

Homers Aid Athletics

The Athletics, who went into first place Tuesday, continued yesterday to mow down the westerners. They went 11-innings to defeat the Chicago White Sox 7 to 5, after home runs by Cochran and Miller in the eighth and ninth innings had enabled them to tie the score.

Lou Gehrig doubled in the eighth inning to score Jimmy Reese and give the Yankees a close 8 to 2 decision over the St. Louis Browns in their first meeting of the year.

Milt Gaston, Red Sox right-hander, lost a tough 2-1 verdict to Detroit when errors helped the Tigers score.

Wes Ferrell was driven from the mound under a fourth-inning barrage as the Washington Senators won their opener from Cleveland, 9 to 3.

Rain and cold weather on the eastern seaboard threw the National league for a total loss.

Semi-Final Game
Of Baseball Season
Southwest Conference

HOUSTON, May 14.—(P)—The semi-final game of the 1931 southwest conference baseball championship is scheduled here tomorrow between Rice and the University of Texas.

The Owls are out of the race, having won only three games in nine starts, but the Longhorns tomorrow will be fighting for a win and a tie for first place with Texas A. and M. If the Longhorns trim the Owls, they will put the conference championship on the outcome of their scheduled game Saturday at College Station against the Aggies.

Bull Montana and Walter Logan
Appear In Headliner Go Tonight

Everything is in readiness for the wrestling matches Thursday night (tonight) at 8:15 o'clock in the Homer Pace building, South Main street and West Seventh avenue, when Bull Montana, hard looker and performer of the ring and movies, clashes with Walter Logan, a rough and ready grappler, in the headliner attraction.

In the semi-final attraction, the famous Flying Dutchman will meet Doc Poole, local favorite, Jack Moran, promoter, announced Thursday morning. Morgan was originally carded to meet Poole in the semi-final set, but the plans were changed at the last minute.

Cotton McGee, high school football player, who is also a wrestler will be one of the principals in a preliminary attraction.

GOLF
AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

TOO MUCH ADVICE IS ONLY ADDED CONFUSION

Should an average player attempt to remember everything he has been told by a professional?

Answered By
ABE G. ESPINOSA

While an attempt to remember too many things that he has been told may result in confusion, it is well for the average player to try to remember the points given him by the pro. These were all very likely given him for some purpose in connection with his game, and for that reason should be put into practice. This, of course, holds good until the points on which he has been coached become automatic. Until then, the best thing that the average player can do is to confine himself to practice in some quiet corner of the course.

Hung Jury Results
In Damage Suit

GROESBECK, May 14.—(Spl.)—A hung jury resulted in the trial of the case of Tom Matthews versus the Texas Utilities company in 87th district court here. The jury was reported deadlocked 6 to 6. Matthews sought $25,000 damages from the utility company for personal injuries sustained several years ago when his welding shop blew up. He claimed a spark from the electric wire caused the explosion.

Honors Are Even in Amateur Fist Bouts

NEW YORK, May 14.—(P)—The amateur boxers of Italy and the United States are all square in their international battles, but it seems most of the honors must go to Italy.

Eight representatives of the nation which won the 1928 Olympic boxing championship battled New York and Boston boxers last night before a crowd of 15,000 at Madison Square Garden. Each nation won four bouts, yet six Italian names were on the list of winners. Two of the American victors were Mike Bellosse and Tony Scarpati. New York Italian boys, Bellosse, a 118-pounder, defeated Vincenzo Dallorto, and Scarpati took the decision in the 125-pound class from Aligento Portolone.

Schmeling to Get Forty Per Cent of
Net Gate of Fight

CLEVELAND, May 14.—(P)—Examination of the contracts for the Schmeling-Stribling heavy-weight championship bout here July 3, disclosed today that Champion Max Schmeling will receive 40 per cent of the gate receipts after deductions for expenses and taxes. The contender, W. L. (Young) Stribling will take 12 1/2 per cent.

On this basis, fight experts estimated Schmeling's pay for the 15-round bout at approximately $300,000. Stribling's remuneration would be about $93,750. The total gate receipts have been estimated at $950,000.

FINAL WORKOUTS FOR ENTRIES IN KENTUCKY DERBY

FIELD OF FOURTEEN MORE OR LESS CERTAIN; USE
STARTING GATE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—(P)—Final workouts today completed the training of the 12 or 14 three-year-olds expected to start Saturday in the fifty-seventh running of the $50,000 added Kentucky derby.

A definite estimate of the size of the field cannot be made until the starting horses are named through the entry box tomorrow. No speed workouts will be attempted the day before the race, but the starters will be given brief warming up gallops.

With a field of 14 or less almost certain, the derby will be sent from the post from a starting gate for the first time in history, assuring a quicker start. The gate accommodates just 14 horses.

No fillies, which are conceded five pounds in the weights, are expected to accept the issue Saturday. Each colt will carry 126 pounds over the mile and a quarter journey. Post time for the derby, the fifth race, probably will be 5 p. m., C. S. T.

Southwest College
Golf Tournament Is Opened in Dallas

DALLAS, May 14.—(P)—Competition in the fourth annual southwest conference golf championship was set to start here today at the Dallas County Club with twenty-seven collegiate golfers entered. Arkansas was the only conference member not represented.

The conference team championship was to be decided today in medal play. In this event, the team boasting four players with the lowest medal total would be awarded the trophy. Each school was allowed six entries, the first four to count.

After the qualifying round and team championship, the sixteen low players will compete through Saturday for the conference individual championship in match play. The final match will be for 36-holes.

Southern Methodist of Dallas and the University of Texas were favorites, each apparently having a well balanced four-man combination for the team championship event, but the individual title seemed to be a wide open race.

Good Minor Loopers Swell Unemployment Lists Says Barbour

CHICAGO, May 14.—(P)—Minor league baseball players of good ability have swelled America's unemployed army by several hundred, Traveling Secretary Lou Barbour of the White Sox estimated today.

"Letters from players are coming in from all sections of the country asking for almost any kind of chances on clubs," Barbour said. "The rainy spell, poor receipts and the habit of former major league players to continue their careers in the lower class leagues have combined to throw hundreds of fair players out of work."

"One team in a league where the player limit stands at 15 or less reported that it had 60 volunteers for places."

ARGENTINE GOLFER
TIES HORTON SMITH
FOR FIRST PLACE

SOUTHPORT, Eng., May 14.—(P)—Horton Smith from Missouri and Marco Churio from the Argentine today tied for first place with only a few more to finish in the second round of the $7,500 Southport professional golf tournament with 36-hole totals of 146.

They were one stroke ahead of Henry Cotton, young British professional who led yesterday's first round with a 70 but could do no better than 77 today.

Smith had a stroke advantage on Churio yesterday but he took a 75 today to the South American's fine 74.

Churio has been one of the sensations of the tournament with his steady play. After a shaky start today, in which he took four on short, par three holes, he settled down to finish out his round in par figures.

Joe Turnesa, the fourth and last American to finish, turned in a poor 79 today to give him a second round total of 154.

When all the scores were in, Smith and Churio still were in the lead with their 146's.

The final 36 holes of the tournament will be played tomorrow.

Of the King-Rights of Jesus Old and Recent Recognitions

Some Present-Day Demonstrations Which Start Thoughts of the Triumphal Entry -- Multitudes Who Acclaim Christ As King.

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Down in Florida I sat on the platform of a community Good Friday service in a crowded theater for which the business of the city had been suspended. All sorts of people, local residents and Winter visitors, made up the congregation. As the old hymns of the Crucifixion were sung, the faces of the instant hearers grew more and more wistful and interested. A Salvation Army captain read the Gospel story of the Cross and an Episcopal rector read the appropriate prayers. The speaker, one of the Winter visitors unfolded the significance of the Cross to all of life's many interests. From beginning to end of his address, he talked in a layman's modern language, of the present meanings of the Cross.

Before my eyes, that audience melted and fused, in a great common experience of devotion. With consecrated fervor, the speaker, "Just As I Am," and then moved quietly out, to extend the influence of the service into the entire community. Ministers and laity spoke of the meeting as a wonder wrought.

How may we account for that service, and thousands more like it throughout the land; and for the millions of persons who assembled, three days later, for Easter Sunday services? For the facts are phenomena that need to be accounted for. What force has gripped the hearts of these multitudes, many of whom are men and women entirely outside of the churches? No superficial whim will get people out of their beds long before daylight, to journey to a distant Easter rendezvous. These same persons would not rise from their slumbers at that hour even to snatch the morning newspaper to read the reports of the latest crime, or sport contest, or political event. They would not do it to see the President or the King of Great Britain pass by, or any lesser notable.

Has Something New Happened? Our answer is simple and lies on the surface. The phenomenon is but a repetition of the Triumphal Entry of Jesus. Christ somehow appeals to the depths of the human heart. For his sake, men and women will do what they will not do for their own pleasure. The instinct to pay homage to Him, to get a new sense of His reality and presence; to receive an inner benediction from Him, is as wide as Christendom.

It needs an Easter demonstration to awaken the soul of the human race. The popularity of Jesus Christ. In His memory, and at His feet, all churches become The Church. Speculation and strife cease at the foot of His Cross. Only the materialism and vulgar philosophy fall silent before the figure of the Crucified One who is also life's Sovereign and Saviour.

Once the city of Florence formally voted Jesus to be its king. Were the issue plainly and publicly joined. He could be made ruler of every community in Christendom. The Triumphal Entry could be repeated ten thousand times, were He to appear.

When The Crown Went Wild. Like so much else in the Bible, the Triumphal Entry smelt of the soil where it was enacted. This is an oriental scene. Excitable Easterners, deeply stirred by the presence of multitudes assembled for the Passover, excitedly stimulated by the high altitude of Jerusalem, "let themselves go" in the fervor of their acclaim of Jesus, whom they expected at this time to assume temporal sovereignty over the Jewish nation. As the crafty, watchful Pharisees said, "Lo, the world is gone after Him."

As the little company of disciples, walking beside their leader, who rode a lowly ass, rounded the shoulder of Olivet, they were expected, and were visible from the walls of the City of Jerusalem. At once the multitudes began to stream forth from the city gates. The hour was at hand, the long dreamed-of hour of Israel's redemption. This Jesus, by His marvelous words and works had proved Himself the Expected One. Earlier, He had declined to be made king; but now in this dramatic hour and place, He could not refuse. Patriotism and religion flamed as burning zeal in the hearts of the throng. Oriental-wise (I have seen the like in Bible Lands), the multitude stripped the trees of their branches as they moved out across the short space intervening between the city and the Mount of Olivet. They leaped and shouted in a delirium of excitement. Cloaks were doffed and waved in the air, and later streets in the King's pathway. The great phrases of the Psalms sprang to the people's lips. Little children added their treble voices. Women cried in shrill ululations. All the new-born hopes of years burst into expression as their "Hosannas!" rent the air. What a day of days to have shared!

Tears in The Triumph. Not only did Jesus permit this, but He also invited it. This was one of His due hours. When Pharisees asked Him to rebuke

Dr. Roberts Rouses Public To Realize Sargon's Importance

So startling have been the results accomplished by Sargon, that scores of outstanding physicians have broken the rule of a lifetime and given it their unqualified endorsement. Dr. C. J. Roberts, M. D., of Philadelphia, graduate University of Pennsylvania and for 26 years medical examiner for the Pennsylvania Railroad, said: "After an investigation of the Sargon formula, for which I was expressly retained, I find that it is rich in those elements which help to bring revitalized vigor, strength and endurance to patients tired-out debilitated men and women. It enriches the blood of those suffering with simple anemia and is without a doubt a highly valuable formula that the entire public should know about. 'The Sargon Pills' are an important part of the treatment." Sold by McPherson Drug Co.—Adv.

the demonstrators, the King replied, "If these should hold their peace, the stones will cry out." Fanciful theologians may sniff at our modern huge Easter sunrise demonstrations by miscellaneous masses; and at the great conventions of Christian Endeavor and the Sunday School; but surely, as of old, the Master Himself is pleased by these outbursts of recognition of His sovereignty. He did not overrate the Triumphal Entry. Sweet as were its hosannas in His ears, He nevertheless knew that members of that same multitude would soon be crying "Crucify Him!" Jesus had no illusions. He knew what was in man. Knowing all, He nevertheless loved, and forgave. In the midst of the wild acclaim of the procession, we behold His Hero in tears. For as He looked upon Jerusalem from the side of Olivet, He saw the city which He loved, and which He was to die for. Ah, if Jerusalem had but known! And ah, if New York and Chicago and Philadelphia and Ottawa and Toronto and a thousands other cities, had but known the nearness and love and power of their King!

A Chicago Incident. Like myriads of other men, I read ceaselessly and assiduously the new notions that are arising all over the world for the amelioration of human society. Brain grows tired and heart grows sick in contemplation of the futility of these clever political and social nostrums. Ever and again I am driven back to the simple faith of our fathers, that nothing but the sovereignty of the Savior can save society. Let Him be king, and all lesser allegations will quietly fall into place. It is rejection of Christ, and His law of love and righteousness, that causes the world to be out of kilter. Bluntly and brutally, multitudes of persons refuse to accept the sway of Jesus, because they think He would interfere with their own selfish pleasures. This spirit of rebellion and anarchy, shameful and dangerous as it is, constantly thwarts all efforts to make this a better world.

Recently, in Chicago, as I happened to know on good authority, an honored leader in civic reform called up fifty of his friends, themselves prominent citizens, to ask their practical support in the fight against racketeering. "We have got to cut off the financial support of the bootleggers," he said; "and I am asking fifty eminent men to agree, for the sake of their city, not to purchase liquor. This is the one basic service man render in our war on the racketeer. Will you agree not to be a financial backer of the bootlegger?" Only two were willing to consent to the proposition. Doesn't it sound like the sentiment of old, "Away with Him," or to refuse to support righteousness is to deny Christ His king-right.

How One Woman Lost 102 Lbs. of Fat

Almost Unbelievable—Nevertheless True

Dear Friends: You advertise Kruschen Salts for reducing, so I finally tried them and when I started I weighed 210 pounds and when I took them for a year and 3 weeks, I lost exactly 102 pounds. I am 25 years old and I look at least 5 years younger now than I did, when I was fat. I have a picture of myself before and after so if you want to see them let me know. I am always telling my friends about the wonderful salts. I am always advertising them. I took 2 bottles every month for a year and 3 weeks. It amounted to $25 for reducing 102 pounds but it was worth it. If I can be of any help to you let me know. Yours truly, Miss Nellie Simpson, 1903 Wayne Street, Swissvale, Pa., Oct. 21, 1930.

STIMSON ORDERS STUDY PROTECTION GIVEN DIPLOMATS

ALL METHODS OF DEFENSE UNDER PROBE AFTER RAID BURGLARS WEDNESDAY

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—Secretary Stimson today instructed the Latin American division of the state department to ascertain what steps the metropolitan police were taking to protect foreign diplomats in the capital. The secretary issued the instructions in connection with an attack early Wednesday on the Salvadorean charge d'affaires, Dr. Don Carlos Leiva, by burglars attempting to loot the legation of its liquor supply. In response to questions, Stimson said he was not concerning himself with the protection of the liquor supplies of the foreign missions in Washington as much as he was the protection of the persons of foreign diplomats. The secretary is studying the whole question of protection to determine the best method to be followed.

Much Liquor Missing. WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—The American government was confronted today with the intricate diplomatic problem of replacing some $300 worth of liquors stolen from the Salvadorean legation. A check of the embassy's diplomatic liquor supply after the raid in which Dr. Don Carlos Leiva, charge d'affaires, was injured showed 17 cases to be missing. Liquor imported by the embassies is exempt from export duties at the point of shipment and the value of the missing liquors was unofficially estimated at between $300 and $400. Under diplomatic customs when a diplomat, through lack of protection prescribed by international law, loses personal property, the government of the country in which the incident occurred makes good the loss.

Personal Property Of Julian Attached By Order of Court

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 14.—(AP)—A court order attaching $183,119.97 personal properties of C. C. Julian, oil operator, was served here today shortly before Julian was to appear in district court to answer a new charge of racketeering. Julian recently told the court his "total personal worldly possessions" consisted of "four $1 bills, a knife and bunch of keys." John Salsberry of Los Angeles demanded the court order to satisfy judgments obtained in California courts.

Only two were willing to consent to the proposition. Doesn't it sound like the sentiment of old, "Away with Him," or to refuse to support righteousness is to deny Christ His king-right.

TEXAS PRORATION PROBLEMS BECOME MORE COMPLICATED

OPPONENTS OF EAST TEXAS OIL PRORATION TAKE CASE TO FEDERAL COURT

AUSTIN, May 12.—(P)—Hearing on the application of the MacMillan Petroleum Corporation, operating in East Texas, for a temporary injunction restraining the railroad commission from enforcing its proration order for that area, will be held in federal court at San Antonio tomorrow. The hearing will be before Judge Duval West. Fred Upchurch, assistant attorney general representing the railroad commission, said he would endeavor to show the federal court that it has jurisdiction because the federal court holds it has jurisdiction, a three-judge court will be necessary for the hearing on the permanent injunction.

AUSTIN, May 12.—(P)—The Texas oil proration problem was made more complicated than ever today. Two suits to enjoin the enforcement of the East Texas field proration order were filed yesterday in federal court at San Antonio.

Opponents of proration took their fight to the federal court for the first time when the MacMillan Petroleum Corporation, a Delaware concern, attacked the order of the commission as it concerned the East Texas field. The petition stated proration in the East Texas field had such a widespread effect on market conditions that it was necessary for enforcement of the order be enjoined to provide adequate relief. The petition asked that the restraining order apply to all companies and persons affected by the proration and in event this request was refused that it apply to the MacMillan properties.

Hearing on the injunction petition of the Central Pipe Line Company, operating in the East Texas field, was set for May 15 in Travis county district court. The application for a temporary injunction was overruled by District Judge J. D. Moore. The third injunction suit was filed by the Nat. Hunter Petroleum Company and the Nat. Hunter Oil Company with wells in Rusk and Gregg counties. It was filed in Judge Moore's court by Governor Dan Moody. The petition claimed the companies had wells capable of producing between 35,000 and 40,000 barrels daily.

The new rules adopted by the railroad commission dealt specifically with methods of drilling and completing wells and was aimed at protection of property and life. They were promulgated as emergency regulations and will replace existing rules immediately. Public hearings on the rules, however, will be held May 22.

The rules required the producing string of casing to be cemented by the pump and plug method and that blow out preventers be installed before pay formation was cored. Operators were ordered to refrain from drilling the maximum amount of pay and stoppage was ordered on every well at a safe distance above the water line shown by the geology of the area in which the well was located.

Use of casinghead gas for fuel and other purposes was encouraged but all such gas not utilized was ordered piped a safe distance from tank batteries, wells and buildings and burned. Penalties for violation of the proration orders ceased with the filing of the injunction suits.

Cleveland Judge Refuses To Allow Injunction Filing

CLEVELAND, May 14.—(P)—Judge Manuel Levine, presiding judge of the court of appeals, today ordered the filing clerk of the court to refuse to accept an injunction petition filed today to stop the Schlemmer-Strubling heavyweight championship fight here July 3.

Judge Levine and his court had no original jurisdiction in an injunction proceeding. The petition filed in the name of David Fischer, an insurance agent, contended the title match would be a prize fight and that prize fighting is illegal in Ohio. It described the proposed battle as a "public nuisance" and as an event which would attract a dangerous and violent assemblage.

CHARGED IN SHOOTING.

LONGVIEW, May 14.—(P)—Ray Wasson was released under $1,500 bond today on charges of assault to murder for the shooting and wounding Tuesday night of W. A. Parker. Reports today from the Shreveport, La., hospital, said Parker was expected to recover.

to a private detective agency, and a third one demanding $10,000 caused the reporting of the kidnapping. Local officers, Sheriff Pettehouse and City Detective Bruce Nutt.

All of the five men indicted are Navarro county products, though Carver has been residing in Waco for about two years, officers report, and owned an airplane there. He was arrested in Waco Tuesday and returned to Corsicana.

Details of the long chase, investigations and arrests of the quartet were outlined to newspaper men in the office of Sheriff Pettehouse, Chief Knight, County Attorney Miller, Detective Nutt and R. D. Fleming, police commissioner and a member of the grand jury, present.

Trial of Charges May Be in Dallas

DALLAS, May 14.—(P)—Possibility that five men indicted yesterday at Corsicana for kidnapping Robert Cerf, son of a Corsicana banker, might be tried usually would be tried in Dallas county, appeared here today.

Although young Cerf was kidnapped in Corsicana, he was held captive in a Dallas apartment house and the $15,000 ransom allegedly was paid here to the abductors.

County Attorney Cleo G. Miller of Corsicana said he would like to have today to confer with District Attorney William McCraw. They were expected to discuss the advisability of shifting the trial to Dallas.

N. Nuttle Roberts, vice-president of the Corsicana bank of which Isaac N. Cerf, the youth's father, is president, conferred here yesterday with McCraw.

McCraw explained that in case the abductors used pistols or other firearms in kidnapping Cerf, they would be amenable to charges of robbery with firearms, an offense punishable by death.

Four of the men charged in the case were in jail at Corsicana when the fifth man was sought in Dallas.

RICE INSTITUTE HEAD DEPLORES BROOKS' DEATH

HOUSTON, May 14.—(P)—Dr. Edgar Odell Lovett, president of Rice Institute, today issued a statement deploring the death of Dr. S. P. Brooks of Baylor university.

"I greatly regret," said Dr. Lovett, "the passing of President Brooks. He spent his powers not only successfully in upbuilding Baylor university, but liberally in the service of the state."

"His friendly presence and wise counsel will be sorely missed by all those who have known him. He was a man of great ability and of high character, and his death is a great loss to the state."

Two hundred students built a huge bonfire near the campus last night, fed it with lumber from the new men's dormitory and part of the university's tennis court bleachers.

Two mounted campus policemen, who tried to disburse the crowd, were greeted with stones and eggs, various sort fruit, and finally a barrage of whitewash. The celebrators were finally dispersed by city police who sprayed them with water from a fire plug.

IN MEMORY.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of the sinner, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that bringeth forth his fruit in his season. And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

These words describe the Godly man. And they come to my mind when I think of my father, F. M. Womack. He was a faithful servant of the Lord and a faithful worker for the Methodist church for many years. He was faithful to his church and all the works until his health failed and he was shut in for almost four years. He was old and stooped with age here but he has gone where he will never grow old.

He was born Oct. 16, 1849, near Atlanta, Ga., went home Oct. 31, 1930. Our mother went home July 8, 1930. He missed her but has gone to meet her and sing around the great white throne.

There was ten children, five living and five gone to the beyond as I have often heard him say. He taught us simple faith in God and his prayer was that we would be an unbroken family in heaven.

His was very tenderly laid to rest at the Craver Creek cemetery, Nov. 1, 1930. As a daughter that cared for him the last few days of his life, I want to say appreciated his big heart and broad mindedness towards others. I feel that he has heard the greetings of the Master which we all hope to meet.

All honored life a peaceful end. And heaven to crown it all. We hope to meet him and hold him upright for the end of that man is peace.

TEXAS BANKERS NEAR CONCLUSION ANNUAL SESSIONS

HOPPES FAVORED FOR PRESIDENT AND HARLINGEN CONVENTION CITY

SAN ANGELO, May 14.—(P)—Austin was selected as the 1932 meeting place of the Texas Bankers' Association and J. W. Hoppes, president of the Mercantile Trust company of Dallas, was elected president at the concluding session of the convention here this morning.

The session adjourned at noon after endorsing resolutions as follows: Urging conservation of oil and gas in Texas and expressing the hope action would be taken by the legislature along this line; expressing appreciation for the efficiency of the administration of John Q. McAdams of Winters who is retiring president and expressing gratitude to the city of San Angelo for its hospitality.

The dead bank robber reward was not brought up in the concluding business session. The speaking program was concluded this morning and the Texas Bankers' Association turned to resolutions, committee reports and selection of the next convention site with the indication that J. W. Hoppes of Dallas would be president and Harlingen the next meeting place.

C. C. Walsh, chairman of the board of the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas, told the bankers that public funds as deposits are hardly worth the candle, that the bank in taking them and investing them should surround itself with the safeguards of the same as the governmental agencies making the deposit require. He warned of the dangers of making loans which are not liquid and of being so involved that the bank could not pay the interest rates to maintain the depository contract.

T. J. Caldwell of Houston paid his compliments to the cotton gin operatives and the U. S. government operating under the name of the federal agricultural marketing act as the two greatest and most helpful speculators of them all.

He said his hobby was trying to run a cotton farm without losing all his money and he had concluded the time had passed when "may be" could make a living the year around for himself and family on a Texas cotton farm, by working not more than a third or a half of the time.

AMERICAN LABOR FEDERATION ASKS RESISTANCE CUTS

WORKERS ARE URGED TO OPPOSE LOWERING SCALE OF WAGES

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(P)—Seeking to forestall what it termed "continuous permanent unemployment," the American Federation of Labor's executive council is asking workers to resist wage reductions "to the fullest extent."

In a study of joblessness, the council announced, it found "an attempt which apparently certain employers are making to bring about a general reduction in wages."

"As usual," said the organization's formal statement yesterday, "labor must be depended upon to save the situation and prevent the further imposition of injustice. For this reason the executive council calls upon labor, organized and unorganized, to resist wage reductions."

"The executive council proposes to appeal to the workers to stand firmly in opposition to wage reductions. The council will urge workers to resist any attempt to organize and unorganized, to resist to the fullest extent any and all attempts to reduce wages and lower American living standards."

The council is inspired by a firm conviction that it is only a step from reductions in wages to continuous, permanent unemployment.

A wage cutting policy, the council held, "constitutes a public violation of the understanding reached" in a conference of industrial and labor leaders with President Hoover. After such a conference in 1929 it was announced that the industrialists had pledged themselves not to initiate any movement for wage reduction. It was said recently at the White House that the president was pleased that pay levels had been maintained during the depression.

The labor council asserted an apparent move toward lower wages "is indefensible both from an ethical and economic viewpoint."

HOUSTON, May 14.—(P)—Secretary of Labor W. N. Doak today reaffirmed his position against wage cuts but would make no statement specifically in reference to reported reductions by Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company and the E. F. Goodrich Rubber Company.

The secretary also declined to comment on the report of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, at Washington, for resistance to any attempted wage reductions.

BROKERS LOANS DECREASE WASHINGTON, May 14.—(P)—Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve bank today were $28,000, as compared with the preceding week's loans for the week ending May 13, 1930, were $407,000,000.

HUGE DEFICIT FOR POSTAL DEPARTMENT PREDICTED LAREDO

FRANKING SYSTEM IS GIVEN AS PRINCIPAL CAUSE OF EXCESSES

LAREDO, May 12.—(P)—A postal deficit of about $140,000,000 at the close of the present fiscal year was predicted today by Assistant Postmaster General Tilton in an address before the convention of Texas postmasters.

Tilton said this deficit would represent an increase of more than $40,000,000 over the $98,000,000 loss for the last financial year. The constantly increasing deficit in the postal receipts as compared with the postal expenditures has been the cause of grave concern, Tilton told the postmasters.

Explaining that while part of this deficit should not be charged against the postoffice department because it was due to the franking system, Tilton pronounced the present total so enormous as to defy adjustment for years to come unless postal rates should be raised.

Neither congress nor the public in general, Tilton said, had approved Postmaster General Brown's proposal of a 1 1/2 cent first class postage rate, but he contended this method the "most simple and positive" to overcome the deficit.

Would Change Parcel Post. He also advocated a parcels rate adjustment which would increase the revenue by approximately $7,500,000; and an increase in size and weight of parcels accepted for mailing which would bring about $5,000,000 more. These two measures will come up for hearing before the interstate commerce commission during the latter part of May, he said.

"It will be seen, therefore, nothing by Christmas, exploring in less than two months problems of self government and necessary safe guards for the great continental peninsula with its 350,000,000 people."

There will be a hundred or more delegates, including Mahatma Gandhi, whose vast constituency—the Indian nationalists—were not represented at the round table conference recently concluded at London.

FOUR ILLUSTRIOUS AMERICANS HONORED IN MEMORY TODAY

NEW YORK, May 14.—(P)—Busts of four illustrious Americans were unveiled in the hall of fame today and a distinguished company celebrated their memory in statue and poetry.

The statues, which were placed with 65 others previously unveiled in the colonnade on the campus of the New York university, are likenesses of the following: James Monroe, fifth president, sponsor of the Monroe doctrine; Matthew Fontaine Maury, oceanographer, called the "pathfinder of the seas"; Eli Whitney, mapping ocean currents and winds saved millions of dollars to shippers by reducing sailing time; James Abbott McNeill Whistler, painter, etcher, water colorist and satirist.

Walt Whitman, called the "poet of democracy," President Hoover sent a letter praising the enduring quality of the work of the four men. He said the Monroe doctrine "has formed the firm foundation upon which had steadily grown an ever increasing mutual respect and good will between our own country and those advancing nations to the south of us."

FOUND SHOT ON TRAIN LUPKIN, May 14.—(P)—J. I. Handley, 60, of Houston, traveling salesman, was found shot and seriously wounded today on a passenger train entering Lupkin. A pistol was found near him. At a hospital here it was said he was expected to live. Handley was born and reared in Anglin county.

Fifteen Years a Sufferer of RHEUMATISM Mrs. W. M. Sloan, Route 3, Corsicana, Texas, says that she has suffered from rheumatism for about fifteen years and that she had taken almost every remedy that was recommended to her for her ailment, but she got no permanent relief until she began taking—

EARLY NOVEMBER IS TENTATIVELY SET AS DATE OF CONFERENCE

SIMLA, India, May 14.—(P)—The first week of November was tentatively set today for the second round table conference at London on an Indian constitutional status. The federal structures committee which will undertake preliminary work will meet in London in September.

The conference should be concluded by Christmas, exploring in less than two months problems of self government and necessary safe guards for the great continental peninsula with its 350,000,000 people.

There will be a hundred or more delegates, including Mahatma Gandhi, whose vast constituency—the Indian nationalists—were not represented at the round table conference recently concluded at London.

Additional Evidence Reign Tut-Ank-Amen Reported Uncovered PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—(P)—Letters received at Haverford College and made public today revealed that additional evidence of the far-flung empire of the Egyptian King, Tut-Ank-Amen, has been uncovered in Palestine by the Haverford expedition under the leadership of Dr. Eilat H. Grant.

The expedition is excavating the mound at Beth-Shehem, a Palestine city closely linked with the storied Samsen and Deltia. City walls, houses, burial remains and great quantities of pottery uncovered in recent seasons have shown Philistine, Hebrew, Roman and Byzantine domination of the ancient city-state.

In one of his letters, Dr. Grant stated a painted clay goblet, dating from 1400 B. C., and similar objects found near the ruined wall of a house this season, testified to the Egyptian occupation during the reign of Tut-Ank-Amen.

EDGE TRIMMING IS ECONOMIC POLICY TWO DEPARTMENTS

NAVY AND INTERIOR DIVISIONS SEE NO POSSIBILITY MAJOR SURGERY

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(P)—A little trimming around the edges rather than any major surgery is the economic offering which interior departments officials can lay before President Hoover in the coming week-end conference at his Rapidan camp.

They do not see in their domain anything to compare with the abandonment of 20 to 30 army posts ordered for the war department. Major cuts, they fear, are impossible unless there is a change in general policy as to public works.

The Indian office, which receives one of the biggest shares of the total appropriation, has just inaugurated a policy which hinges on employment of high-caliber personnel at attractive salaries. It received for the fiscal year 1933 a net appropriation of about $25,000,000. If material cut were made officials fear their program would be wrecked.

There will be unquestionably a slinkage in the way the reclamation bureau, bogging down oil prices and other causes are expected to cut the reclamation fund on which it operates principally $1,000,000, to about $6,000,000. However, as a revolving fund, this has little bearing on the general treasury condition.

Building Hoover dam will take another $15,000,000, as in this year, and the bureau hopes to get $5,000,000 to start the All-American canal.

The education office is conducting surveys which it fears would be disrupted or made more expensive by reduction in appropriations. Park service may see some curtailment in appropriations for roads and trails. Some officials believe this is so acute that it will be most easily spared in times of financial stringency.

For the rest, "administrative economy" is the best bureau heads have to offer. This is taken to mean running offices on the narrowest margins possible.

Special Meeting of Senate Group Called Study Cannon Cases

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(P)—Chairman Nye of the senate campaign funds committee today called a special meeting to be held in New York this week-end for consideration of the inquiry into the disposition of campaign funds by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1923.

The chairman today left for New York. He will confer there with Senators Dale, republican, Vermont, and Wagner, democrat, New York.

Senator Nye did not disclose whether hearings would be held in New York but there was a belief that the committee was prepared to go to work again shortly.

At the last meeting of the committee, Miss Ada Burroughs of Richmond, former treasurer of the anti-Smith organization of Virginia, in 1923, declined to supply the committee with the information it sought and challenged its authority to make the investigation.

KERENS FARMERS BUSY IN FIELDS DURING DAYLIGHT

KERENS, May 14.—(Sp.)—Farmers here are taking advantage of the fair weather and putting in full time. None are seen on the streets of Kerens except early in the morning and about dark. Crops have all been plowed out, some cotton as much as twice but none has been hoed. The plant is small, the farmers say, on account of the cool weather, and is not growing as it should. Oats are as good as can be expected and binders will be going out in a few days. Kerens farmers have already cut oats.

The cotton acreage, according to merchants, gin men and farmers, has been reduced about 15 per cent. under last year and the land planted in feedstuff. Kerens is not expected to receive the large cotton crop they have been receiving in former years.

FIFTY-FOOT MOTORBOAT IS REFITTED FOR PRESIDENT'S USE; REPLACING MAYFLOWER

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(P)—A 50-foot motor boat will be the flagship of Commander-in-chief Herbert Hoover.

For several months the president has been without a boat he really could call his own. Early in his administration he ordered the presidential yacht Mayflower decommissioned and sold, and since that time he has depended on the navy and other departments to provide transportation on the water.

But the navy now is fixing up a motor boat which was used on the battleship Arizona until 1929. Since then the small craft has been re-engineered, outfitted and overhauled in presidential style. It is at Norfolk and will be brought to the Washington navy yard early next week.

Besides its crew of five the vessel—as yet unnamed—will carry eight passengers. It has a galley, a small cabin and a canopyed after deck where the president and Mrs. Hoover can sit with their guests.

Sleeping quarters are so limited the president probably will have to do most of his cruising in the daytime. There are, however, two bunks forward of the main cabin, which can be used as beds in emergency.

RAISE MAILED FIST AGAINST BURNERS OF CATHOLIC CHURCHES

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN EFFORT STOP WIDESPREAD WAVE OF ARSON

MADRID, May 12.—(P)—The mailed fist of the month old Spanish republic was raised today to halt the widespread wave of arson throughout Spain which has left smoking Catholic churches and scarred convents, hastily evacuated by monks and nuns.

Martial laws is the republic's answer to the mobs which have swept through the streets of the largest cities in a campaign against the Catholic church.

The tension had eased today but President Alcala Zamora said the government was prepared to use all the force it commands to restore and preserve order.

"We intend to pursue a firm policy," he said. "We will protect life and property and we will impose the severest punishment on all those who are found guilty of fomenting these disturbances, be they monarchists, communists or whoever they be."

Members of the Catholic hierarchy, including Cardinal Primate Segura whose recent pastoral letter urging Catholics to vote for parliamentary candidates who could "defend the interests of the church," aroused republican criticism, declined to comment on the riots which have laid waste a score of Catholic institutions causing damages estimated at millions of pesetas.

More than 200 persons have been arrested as a result of the disorders which have continued since Sunday. They are a curious collection of extremists both of the right and of the left.

One of the prisoners is General Berenguer, former premier, whose family had feared the mob might attack him. He is detained under a vague charge of "falsification," and the government, beyond assuring that impartial justice would be administered, has declined to comment on his case.

The capital was almost normal this afternoon although soldiers were in the streets making the crowds move on when they gathered about the charred wreckage of the Catholic buildings.

Reports from the provinces indicated the excitement was subsiding there.

Jeering Spanish Mobs Still Rioting

MADRID, May 12.—(P)—Jeering mobs which swept aside police, civil guards and soldiers, attacked and burned churches and church buildings in the cities of Spain today as the month-old republican government strove with all its resources to restore order.

Five churches and convents were burned before dawn in Seville. Martial law was declared and troops were placed on the streets in an effort to control the throngs which ranged the city,

Family Reunion Honors Birthday Of Mrs. P. J. Ellis

Mrs. P. J. Ellis celebrated her 67th birthday on April 28th at the home of her youngest son, Allen Ellis, with her children and grand children all being present and except one son and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ellis and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hutton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waldrop and family, two grand daughters, Mr. and Mrs. William Mills and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marlow and son.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Burle Ellis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vest and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vinson and Miss Opal Greenhill.

Dinner was served at 12 o'clock with many good things to eat. In the afternoon everyone enjoyed themselves playing ball and games. In the latter part of the afternoon all departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Her daughter, MRS. HATTIE VEST, Purdon, Texas.

destroying monuments which marked the centuries of Roman Catholicism in Spain. Similar conditions prevailed in Malaga where two churches and church buildings were burned during the night. At Cadiz, where four churches and convents were burned, and at Alicante, where four churches and convents were partly destroyed by fire and looting during the night. At Zaragoza, Cordoba and Bilbao attacked and wrecked church buildings in those cities, but did not burn them.

With cavalry, infantry, tanks and machine gun squadrons patrolling the streets, Madrid, the capital was restored to tranquillity during the night, but not before ten churches, convents, monasteries and other ecclesiastical buildings had been burned to the ground while the mobs held off firemen and prevented their fighting the flames.

A nationwide checkup showed 21 church buildings destroyed by fire and perhaps ten more badly damaged but not burned. Inmates of the buildings in every case fled and while a few monks and priests were beaten there were remarkably few casualties among them. Nuns in almost every case were respected by the crowd.

Estimates on the number of religious workers fleeing Madrid alone ran as high as 50,000.

Efforts to estimate the physical damage were mere guesses. Work, but some calculated it as high as 150,000,000 pesetas (nearly $30,000,000). This did not account for priceless manuscripts and church services, paintings and vessels which were destroyed or taken from the churches.

Malaga law was declared in Malaga and infantry and cavalry troops patrolled the city but destruction of church property continued. The Archbishop of Malaga took refuge at the home of friends.

TEAGUE LEGISLATOR OFFERS AMENDMENT TO BUILD AT WACO

AUSTIN REPRESENTATIVE SAYS REMOVAL PLAN IS BOND ISSUE CLUB

AUSTIN, May 12.—(P)—The fight on the removal of the state highway department to Waco was started in the house today when Rep. McGregor of Austin offered an amendment to the departmental appropriation bill to appropriate $500,000 for a highway and records building in Austin. Rep. Steward of Teague immediately offered an amendment to appropriate $375,000 to erect the building at Waco.

Discussing the substitute amendment, McGregor said he deeply resented the tactics of certain individuals in Austin who supported the state highway bond issue and tried to club him into voting for its submission. He can't express my resentment because the language necessarily would be unparliamentary," McGregor said.

A group of Austin business men adopted a resolution several weeks ago calling on McGregor to drop his leadership of the bond issue opponents. The action was censured formally in a resolution adopted by the house.

McGregor argued removal of the highway department would violate the constitution since Austin had been selected as the seat of the government. He also claimed it was better to erect the building here because it would be used to store inflammable records now in the basement of the capitol and would relieve overcrowded conditions generally.

Several state departments rent offices in Austin. The rent bill of the highway department is $800 a month.

He charged the move to erect the building at Waco was aimed at intimidating and striking down men who the courage of their convictions.

Steward, however, claimed the substitute amendment had no connection with the highway bond issue and said it would benefit both the department and the state if moved to Waco. He denied any effort had been made to browbeat members into voting for the highway bond issue.

Removal of the department would remove it further from politics and would provide for greater distribution of the salaries paid by the state, Steward said. He further contended it would eliminate a large number of family jobs in the state service, saying it had been reported it was easy for the head of one department to obtain a position for a member of his family in another department.

Would Not Hamper Work. Steward quoted W. R. Ely, chairman of the highway commission, as saying that removal of the department to Waco would not affect the efficiency of the unit. Ely said there was no reason why the department could not operate as efficiently from Waco

Ten Dead After Strikers Fight Police in Cairo

CAIRO, Egypt, May 14.—(P)—Ten men were reported killed and 86 injured today when striking railway shop workmen fought with police in the streets. Two of the injured were British engineers.

Unofficial estimates placed the number of dead at more than a score but there was no opportunity to check these figures for the riots spread from the railway shops to other sections of the city and the government was considering calling out the troops.

Testimony Opens In Murder Trial

MCKINNEY, May 14.—(P)—Testimony in the case of Pritchard Hall, 25, charged with fatally stabbing Royce Godwin, was started in district court today, with Deputy Sheriff T. W. Franklin first to take the witness stand.

Hall was charged after the death of Godwin last December 1. Godwin was stabbed at a dance at Hall's home in the Cimarron community, near McKinney. A jury was selected yesterday.

as any other city. This view was supported in a telegram from Commissioner D. K. Martin to Steward.

While the debate on the department's removal was in full swing, Representative Beck of Fort Worth gave notice the highway bond issue amendment would be called up again tomorrow for action.

Representative Davis of Brownwood had an amendment prepared to move the highway department to Brady or Brownwood and Representative Kennedy of Kosas was prepared to offer one to move it to Marlin. Another amendment to move the department to Eastland had been prepared.

An amendment to the appropriation bill prohibiting the health department from using any appropriations to print health cartoons was adopted.

SEEK INJUNCTION IN REGARD TAKING RIO GRANDE WATER

BROWNSVILLE, May 14.—(P)—Claiming the state board of water engineers has no constitutional right to grant permits for taking water from the Rio Grande, the La Feria Irrigation District today asked for an injunction against the Willacy County Irrigation District.

The petition, filed in district court here, asked that the Willacy county district be restricted from building a pumping plant on the Rio Grande west of the La Feria district, and that it be prevented from using its huge irrigation system.

The petition alleged that the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo between the United States and Mexico gave water rights to landowners on the river, and that the state board has no authority to grant water permits to others. A hearing on the petition was not set.

TEXAS CITY AND GALVESTON GIVEN HOUSTON RATES

AUSTIN, May 14.—(P)—The railroad commission yesterday entered an order permitting Galveston and Texas City to receive the same rates as Houston on cotton shipped there from more than 100 miles from Houston.

The case had been pending for several years.

The commission today reduced from column 45 to column 42 1-2 the rates on oil, water and gas well supplies and pig irons. This was a reduction of 2 1-2 per cent of the first class rate.

Decision on an application for new rates on cotton lint was postponed.

A REALLY BAD SCALP
SERIOUS SCALP TROUBLES
 At the first sign of scalp trouble try one of the treatments suggested today by Miss Forbes. They may not only save you a large specialist's bill, but they may also save your hair. If your scalp is really bad condition, obviously you should consult a scalp specialist. But the ordinary doctor is no scalp specialist, and the medical profession as a whole ignores scalp diseases. For proof look at the number of bald headed doctors. Perhaps they think baldness is becoming, though most likely they don't. It is quite normal for a certain amount of hair to fall at the change of the season, the spring and the fall. At all other times scalp trouble, if it is of the falling hair is simply a sign of not checking in time it will soon be very difficult to cope with. You need in the beginning such simple things as sulphur ointment, crude oil or a properly recommended hair tonic, and perhaps tincture of green soap to be used when shampooing. And you will also need oil of lighter consistency, probably almond oil, since oil is the best way to cure any sort of scalp trouble.

You can buy ready made sulphur ointment, but it is so easy to make that I advise you to do it yourself. You need only take a tablespoon of powdered sulphur and enough olive oil to make a salve. If you have a bald spot, rub it with sulphur ointment. Let the ointment remain on all night. Next day cover the scalp with a heated egg, let this dry and rinse off with warm water and shampoo the hair. This treatment should be repeated at least one time a week. If the spots do not disappear within a few months, then you'll have to consult a specialist. However, it is a very far advanced case of baldness that will not yield to this treatment.

Crude oil is a wonderful treatment for thin and falling hair. You can buy this in tubes from drug stores, or you can buy it a lot cheaper if you purchase small bottles of it at paint shops. It is as its name says, crude oil, unrefined oil as it comes from the earth, with all the good properties of the earth in it. Let it remain on the scalp to hours.
